File No. TW-2018-0098

ORDER DENYING EXTENSION OF TIME TO OFFER COMMENTS

Issue Date: October 20, 2017

Effective Date: October 20, 2017

The Commission opened this file on October 18, 2017, at its Staff's request, to assist Staff in its review of the Commission's Chapter 28 rules regarding telecommunications, IVOIP, and video services, as well as the Chapter 37 rules regarding number pooling and number conservation efforts. Again at Staff's request, the Commission offered interested stakeholders an opportunity to submit comments regarding possible changes to those rules, but allowed only until October 23 to submit those comments. Upon reading the Commission's order, numerous industry stakeholders filed motions asking for more time to submit their comments.<sup>1</sup>

The Commission understands the concerns expressed by the stakeholders, but will not grant the requested extensions. The short time allowed for these initial comments is merely the first step in a more extensive review process. Staff requested quick responses to allow for the possibility of stakeholder input before the suggested rule revisions are presented to the Commission and then to the Governor's Office for a more detailed review in accordance with time-frames requested by the Governor's Office. Stakeholders will have additional opportunities to offer comments and suggestions during that informal review process. Ultimately, any proposed changes to the rules will be reviewed by the Commission and, if appropriate, promulgated through the statutory rulemaking process, which will afford stakeholders further opportunity to be heard.

A separate Motion for Extension of Time was filed on October 20 by the Missouri Cable Telecommunications Association (MCTA).
