Re: 4 CSR 240-2.065 Tariff Filings Which Create Cases

Dear Secretary Carnahan,

CERTIFICATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULE

I do hereby certify that the attached is an accurate and complete copy of the proposed rulemaking lawfully submitted by the Missouri Public Service Commission.

The Public Service Commission has determined and hereby certifies that this proposed rulemaking will not have an economic impact on small businesses. The Public Service Commission further certifies that it has conducted an analysis of whether there has been a taking of real property pursuant to section 536.017, RSMo 2000, that the proposed rulemaking does not constitute a taking of real property under relevant state and federal law, and that the proposed rulemaking conforms to the requirements of 1.310, RSMo, regarding user fees.

The Public Service Commission has determined and hereby also certifies that this proposed rulemaking complies with the small business requirements of 1.310, RSMo, in that it does not have an adverse impact on small businesses consisting of fewer than twenty-five full or part-time employees or it is necessary to protect the life, health, or safety of the public, or that this rulemaking complies with 1.310, RSMo, by exempting any small business consisting of fewer than twenty-five full or part-time employees from its coverage, by implementing a federal mandate, or by implementing a federal program administered by the state or an act of the general assembly.

Statutory Authority: section 386.410, RSMo 2000

If there are any questions regarding the content of this proposed rulemaking, please contact me at the address and number below.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Nancy Dippell". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Nancy" being larger and more prominent than the last name "Dippell".

Please describe the methods your agency considered or used to reduce the impact on small businesses: This rule is being amended to give notice to practitioners before the commission of the procedure for handling tariff filings now allowed under statute. The rule is also being amended to remove the requirement of providing eight (8) paper copies of tariffs in addition to the original. There is no negative impact on small businesses.

Please explain how your agency has involved small businesses in the development of the proposed rule.

The commission has noted comments from individuals and practitioners for both large and small utilities since this rule was last updated and taken those comments as well as its own experience into account in deciding to update this rule. The Commission held a roundtable discussion on November 30, 2010, and invited the public to comment informally on the draft of the proposed rules. The Commission subsequently incorporated some changes from that roundtable into the rules for clarity and ease of use.

Please list the probable monetary costs and benefits to your agency and any other agencies affected. Please include the estimated total amount your agency expects to collect from additionally imposed fees and how the moneys will be used.

No additional monies will be collected from this rule and no additional expenditures will be made by the agency as a result of this amendment. The commission will save personnel expense in no longer having to handle unnecessary paper copies of tariff filings.

Please describe small businesses that will be required to comply with the proposed rule and how they may be adversely affected.

No small businesses are adversely affected by this amendment.

Please list direct and indirect costs (in dollars amounts) associated with compliance.

There is no cost associated with compliance of this amendment. The amendment will save the agency and businesses the cost of making and handling eight copies of tariff filings.

Please list types of business that will be directly affected by, bear the cost of, or directly benefit from the proposed rule.

There is no cost associated with compliance of this amendment. Large and small utilities that file tariffs with the Commission will save the cost of making and handling eight copies of tariff filings.

Does the proposed rule include provisions that are more stringent than those mandated by comparable or related federal, state, or county standards?

Yes___ No_X__

If yes, please explain the reason for imposing a more stringent standard.

For further guidance in the completion of this statement, please see §536.300, RSMo.
