COMPLAINANT REQUEST FOR MORE TIME TO COMPLY WITH ORDER DIRECTING FILING

Comes now the complainant, Richard Tolbert, pro se, with a request for two week's more time to comply with the Order Directing Filing and states in support of this request as follows:

1. The complainant made a timely verbal request for two weeks more time on August 30, 2007, at which time Judge Lane directed him to contact and advise the lawyer for the respondent of this request, and to report back to the judge. The complainant left a detailed message for the respondent's lawyer on August 30, 2007.

2. The respondent's lawyer did not respond to the message until September 11, 2007, at which time he voiced no opposition to the extension of time.

3. The respondent advised Judge Lane, who verbally agreed to grant a two week extension to September 14, 2007, however, the respondent has not yet received the written order granting the extension of time.

4. The respondent needs more time to gather the documentation required to comply with the Order Directing Filing.

5. The purpose of this request is not to vex or harass the respondent.

WHEREFORE, the respondent requests an additional two weeks time to comply with the Order Directing Filing to September 28, 2007.

Respectfully submitted on 9/14/07
