P R O C E E D I N G S

(WHEREUPON, the evidentiary hearing began at 9:00 a.m.)

JUDGE STEARLEY: All right. Good morning. It is Friday, June 29, 2012. We are back on the record in File No. WA-2012-0066, Missouri American's certificate application involving the Saddlebrooke subdivision.

We had recessed yesterday and the parties were negotiating. If they can please give us a status report.

MS. LEWIS: Thank you, Judge, for giving us the extra time. It appears through recent conversations that we are really, really close to finalizing the document. I think it would just be essentially formatting and grammatical changes at this point. I think everybody's on board with what's there, but we need to send out another draft that it has accepted all of the proposed changes to the parties for final review.

MR. CONRAD: We concur.

JUDGE STEARLEY: So the parties are agreeing substantively it would be okay at this point to suspend the procedural schedule?

MR. COOPER: Yes, your Honor.

MS. LEWIS: Yes.

JUDGE STEARLEY: All right. Very good. We

1 will suspend the procedural schedule. And do you think
2 your final agreement will be getting filed today?

3 MS. LEWIS: That's my expectation.

4 JUDGE STEARLEY: All right. Very good. We
5 appreciate all your efforts. Is there any other matter we
6 need to take up at this time?

7 MS. LEWIS: No.

8 MR. CONRAD: We can work on the health care
9 law, but I think that's been handled.

10 MS. LEWIS: If you want this document
11 today, that's probably not a good idea.

12 JUDGE STEARLEY: We'll save that for
13 discussion another day.

14 MS. LEWIS: Thanks, Judge.

15 JUDGE STEARLEY: All right. Thank you all
16 very much, and we stand adjourned.

17 (WHEREUPON, the evidentiary hearing
18 concluded at 9:02 a.m.)
