NOTICE OF WITNESS AVAILABLE FOR ON-THE-RECORD PROCEEDING

COMES NOW Cintex Wireless, LLC (“Cintex” or “Company”) and, pursuant to the October 3, 2012 Notice and Order Setting On-The-Record Proceeding (“Notice”), respectfully states as follows:

1. In its October 3, 2012 Notice, the Commission ordered a November 15, 2012 on-the-record proceeding so that it may direct questions to the parties regarding the Unanimous Stipulation and Agreement (“Agreement”) they filed on September 21, 2012. In that Notice, the Commission stated that there is no requirement that subject matter experts appear as witnesses, but ordered any party that intends to proffer a witness to file by October 26, 2012 a declaration identifying the witness and biographical information on such witness.

2. Mr. Brandt Mensh, identified in the Agreement at paragraph 28 as the President of Cintex and the person who will be responsible for the day-to-day Cintex Lifeline operations in Missouri, will be available by conference call at the November 15, 2012 on-the-record proceeding, should the Commission have any questions of him.

3. Mr. Mensh has been the President and Chief Operating Officer of Cintex since February of 2010. His responsibilities include oversight over all operations of the Company. Mr. Mensh has 13 years of experience in the telecommunications industry. Prior to joining Cintex, he owned an authorized dealer for Nextel Communications. His experience spans many facets of the telecommunications industry from retail stores, business sales, wholesale, resale, and Lifeline assistance programs. Mr. Mensh has a B.A. in Business Management from the University of Hartford in 1985.

WHEREFORE, Cintex Wireless, LLC hereby identifies its witness, Mr. Brandt Mensh, who will be available by conference call at the November 15, 2012 on-the-record proceeding, should the Commission have any questions of him, and files his biographical information.

Respectfully submitted,
