ORDER CORRECTING THE COMMISSION'S ORDER GRANTING A CERTIFICATE OF CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY NUNC PRO TUNC

Issue Date: April 21, 2022

Effective Date: April 21, 2022

In reviewing Confluence Rivers' case records to verify that the utilities and tariffs discussed in the application and order were properly reflected in the Commission's electronic filing system, it came to the Commission's attention that there was a clerical error in ordered paragraph 4 of the Commission's order granting a certificate of convenience and necessity (CCN).

Ordered paragraph 4 of the Commission's Order Granting Certificate of Convenience and Necessity, issued on December 15, 2021, erroneously includes the Cedar Green regulated water and sewer systems. Ordered paragraph 3 already grants Confluence Rivers Utility Operating Company (Confluence Rivers) a CCN to acquire and operate the regulated water and sewer assets of Cedar Green.

Ordered paragraph 4 should instead include the unregulated Spring Branch water system. The Spring Branch water system was included in the Staff of the Commission's recommendation, and is appropriately referenced elsewhere in the ordered paragraphs. There is no dispute regarding the Commission's intent to grant a CCN to Confluence

Rivers to acquire the Spring Branch system. Accordingly, the Commission will correct the ordered paragraph nunc pro tunc. Ordered paragraph 4 is corrected to read as follows:

4. Confluence Rivers is authorized to acquire, and is granted a CCN to own, install, construct, operate, control, manage, and maintain the unregulated water and sewer assets of The Missing Well, Shelton Estates, Clemstone, Prairie Heights, and Spring Branch.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The Commission's Order Granting Certificate of Convenience and Necessity, issued order, issued December 15, 2021, is corrected as indicated in the body of this order.

2. This order shall be effective when issued.
