Case No. WO-2005-0086

APPLICATION OF HANCOCK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY TO INTERVENE

Comes now Hancock Construction Company by and through its attorney, Terry C. Allen, and moves to intervene in the above captioned Joint Application in that it is an interested party named in the Joint Application as a judgment creditor to whom substantial sums are owed. Intervener Applicant has a judgment and judgment lien against the certain assets of the Osage Water Company as acknowledged on page 8 of the Joint Application. Intervener Applicant is entitled to protect its judgment and judgment lien for the amounts of record with interest and costs. The purpose of the intervention is to protect its interest in this case. Hancock Construction Company is unsure of its position at this time on the Joint Application.

WHEREFORE, Hancock Construction Company requests that its Application for Intervention be granted.
