ORDER REGARDING TEST YEAR

Issue Date July 31, 2008

Effective Date: July 31, 2008

On June 30, 2008 the Commission issued an Order Adopting Procedural Schedule. In that order, the Commission set the test year as the year ending December 31, 2007. However, the Commission did not set a date through which known and measurable changes would be accounted.

On July 18, Missouri-American Water Company filed a pleading concerning the Commission's order. In that pleading, Missouri-American points out that no party disagrees that the test year should be updated through March 31, 2008, for known and measurable changes. No party has responded to Missouri-American's pleading. The Commission will therefore order that the test year shall be updated for known and measurable changes through March 31, 2008.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The test year ending December 31, 2007, shall be updated for known and measurable changes through March 31, 2008.

2. This order shall become effective on July 31, 2008.
