

393.295. All provisions of chapters 386 and 393, RSMo, concerning court proceedings and the jurisdiction, supervision, powers and duties of the public service commission with reference to gas corporations and electrical corporations, including, but not limiting by enumeration those provisions concerning supervision, investigations, complaints, hearings, reports, approval of certificates of franchises, granting of certificates, approval of issues of stocks, bonds, notes and other evidence of indebtedness, keeping of accounts, fixing of just and reasonable rates, which shall be based on costs associated with any property of such corporations, shall be and are hereby made fully applicable to any joint municipal utility commission which owns, operates, controls or manages all or part of any gas or electric light works, heating or power plants, electrical energy resources or gas or electrical production, distribution or transmission facilities in this state. Nothing contained herein, however, shall affect the rights, privileges or duties of existing corporations pursuant to this chapter, including the construction of facilities within an existing certificated area.
