Re file case number WC-2020-0048

This is in response to your letter of August 28, 2019

This response is from
Carroll James Christiansen, Kimberling Inn, Inc and Kimberling Properties.

The properties addressed in this complaint have not been owned by any of these entities for several years.

None of these respondents have the ability to obtain a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity from the Commission as we do not own any water distribution wells or water lines in the area talked about.

None of these entities addressed above have any right to cutting off service to the unit owners, and have not threatened such.

Sincerely

C. James Christiansen
