COMPLAINT

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission, through the undersigned counsel, and pursuant to Section 386.390 RSMo. (2000)¹ and 4 CSR 240-2.070(1), files this Complaint with the Missouri Public Service Commission against Respondent, The Willows Utility Company, for violation of the Commission's statutes and rules relating to the filing of annual reports. In support of its Complaint, Staff respectfully states the following:

Introduction

1. This matter concerns Respondent's failure to timely file an annual report as required by Section 393.140(6), RSMo. and Commission Rules 4 CSR 240-3.335 and 4 CSR 240-3.640.

¹ All statutory references are to RSMo 2000, as currently supplemented.

Parties

2. Complainant is the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission, acting through the Staff Counsel's Office as authorized by Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.070(1).

3. Respondent is The Willows Utility Company, a Missouri corporation in good standing. Respondent's official representative is Paul Liechty, P.O. Box 140099, Dallas, TX 75214. This Commission granted Respondent a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity ("CCN") authorizing the Company to provide water and sewer service to the public for gain on December 27, 1979, in Case No. WA-80-86 in Greene County. Pursuant to this CCN, Respondent provides water and sewer service to approximately 186 residential customers in Greene County, Missouri.

General Allegations

4. Respondent is a "water corporation" as defined by Section 386.020(59), RSMo., a "sewer corporation" as defined by Section 386.020(49), RSMo., and a "public utility" as defined by Section 386.020(43), RSMo., and thus is subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission pursuant to Section 386.250(3), RSMo.

5. Section 386.390.1, RSMo. authorizes the Commission to entertain a complaint "setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any...public utility...in violation, or claimed to be in violation, of any provision of law, or of any rule, or order or decision of the commission."

6. Section 386.600, RSMo. provides, "an action to recover a penalty...under this chapter or to enforce the powers of the commission under this or any other law may be brought in any circuit court in this state in the name of the state of Missouri and shall be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment by the general counsel to the commission.”

Respondent has failed to submit its 2016 annual report

7. Complainant hereby adopts by reference and re-alleges the allegations set out in paragraphs one (1) through six (6) above.

8. Section 393.140(6), RSMo. requires every water corporation and every sewer corporation to file with the Commission an annual report, and Rule 4 CSR 240-3.640(1) requires the annual report to be filed with the Commission on or before April 15 of each year.

9. On May 10, 2017, Staff mailed a letter to the Company notifying Respondent that the Commission had not received the Company's 2016 annual reports and that the Respondent would be subject to legal action if the Company did not file its 2016 annual reports by May 20, 2017.

10. Respondent did not file its 2016 annual reports by May 20, 2017.

11. As of the date of this filing, Respondent has failed, omitted, or neglected to file its calendar year 2016 annual report.

12. Section 393.140(6), RSMo. states, “[a]ny such person or corporation which shall neglect to make any such report or which shall fail to correct any such report within the time prescribed by the commission shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars and an additional penalty of one hundred dollars for each day after the prescribed time for which it shall neglect to file or correct the same...”

WHEREFORE, Staff respectfully requests the Commission give notice to the Respondent as required by law and, after the opportunity for hearing, issue an order that finds the Respondent failed, omitted, or neglected to file an annual report for 2016 and authorizes the General Counsel's Office to bring a penalty action against the respondent in circuit court as provided in Sections 386.600 and 393.140(6), RSMo.

Information Sheet Regarding Mediation of Commission Formal Complaint Cases

Mediation is a process whereby the parties themselves work to resolve their dispute with the aid of a neutral third-party mediator. This process is sometimes referred to as “facilitated negotiation.” The mediator’s role is advisory and although the mediator may offer suggestions, the mediator has no authority to impose a solution nor will the mediator determine who “wins.” Instead, the mediator simply works with both parties to facilitate communications and to attempt to enable the parties to reach an agreement which is mutually agreeable to both the complainant and the respondent.

The mediation process is explicitly a problem-solving one in which neither the parties nor the mediator are bound by the usual constraints such as the rules of evidence or the other formal procedures required in hearings before the Missouri Public Service Commission. The Regulatory Law Judges at the Public Service Commission are trained mediators and this service is offered to parties who have formal complaints pending before the Public Service Commission at no charge. In addition, the assistance of an attorney is not necessary for mediation. In fact, the parties are encouraged not to bring an attorney to the mediation meeting.

The formal complaint process before the Commission invariably results in a determination by which there is a “winner” and a “loser” although the value of winning may well be offset by the cost of attorneys fees and the delays of protracted litigation. Mediation is not only a much quicker process but it also offers the unique opportunity for informal, direct communication between the two parties to the complaint and mediation is far more likely to result in a settlement which, because it was mutually agreed to, pleases both parties. This is traditionally referred to as “win-win” agreement.

The traditional mediator’s role is to (1) help the participants understand the mediation process, (2) facilitate their ability to speak directly to each other, (3) maintain order, (4) clarify misunderstandings, (5) assist in identifying issues, (6) diffuse unrealistic expectations, (7) assist in translating one participant’s perspective or proposal into a form that is more understandable and acceptable to the other participant, (8) assist the participants with the actual negotiation process, (9) occasionally a mediator may propose a possible solution, and (10) on rare occasions a mediator may encourage a participant to accept a particular solution. The Judge assigned to be the mediator will not be the same Judge assigned to the contested complaint.

In order for the Commission to refer a complaint case to mediation, the parties must both agree to mediate their conflict in good faith. The party filing the complaint must agree to appear and to make a good faith effort to mediate and the utility company against which the complaint has been filed must send a representative who has full authority to settle the complaint case. The essence of mediation stems from the fact that the participants are both genuinely interested in resolving the complaint.

Because mediation thrives in an atmosphere of free and open discussion, all settlement offers and other information which is revealed during mediation is shielded against subsequent disclosure in front of the Missouri Public Service Commission and is considered to be privileged information. The only information which must be disclosed to the Public Service Commission is (a) whether the case has been settled and (b) whether, irrespective of the outcome, the mediation effort was considered to be a worthwhile endeavor. The Commission will not ask what took place during the mediation.

If the dispute is settled at the mediation, the Commission will require a signed release from the complainant in order for the Commission to dismiss the formal complaint case. If the dispute is not resolved through the mediation process, neither party will be prejudiced for having taken part in the mediation and, at that point, the formal complaint case will simply resume its normal course.

AUTHORITY: section 386.410, RSMo 2000. Original rule filed Dec. 7, 2001, effective May 30, 2002. Rescinded: Filed March 2, 2011, effective Oct. 30, 2011.

4 CSR 240-2.050 Computation of Time

PURPOSE: This rule sets standards for computation of effective dates of any order or time prescribed by the commission when no specific date is set by commission order.

(1) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by the commission, the day of the act, event, or default shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, in which case the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. This rule does not apply when the commission establishes a specific date by which an action must occur, nor does it operate to extend effective dates which are established by statute.

(2) Except when the issuance and effective date are the same, in computing the effective date of any order of the commission, the day the order was issued shall not be included, and the order is considered effective at 12:00 a.m. on the effective date designated in the order, whether or not the date is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. If the effective date and the issuance date are the same, the order shall be effective at the date and time the order is issued by the commission.

(3) When an act is required or allowed to be done by order or rule of the commission at or within a specified time, the commission may—

(A) Order the period enlarged before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order; or

(B) After the expiration of the specified period, permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect or for other good cause shown.

4 CSR 240-2.065 Tariff Filings Which Create Cases

PURPOSE: This rule establishes when a case shall be opened for a tariff.

(1) A general rate increase request is one where the company or utility files for an overall increase in revenues through a company-wide increase in rates for the utility service it provides, but shall not include requests for changes in rates made pursuant to an adjustment clause or other similar provisions contained in a utility's tariffs. When a public utility submits a tariff which constitutes a general rate increase request, the commission shall establish a case file for the tariff. The tariff and all pleadings, orders, briefs, and correspondence regarding the tariff shall be filed in the case file established for the tariff. The tariff submitted shall be in compliance with the provisions of the rules relating to the separate utilities. A tariff filed which proposes a general rate increase request shall also comply with the minimum filing requirements of these rules for general rate increase requests. Any public utility which submits a general rate increase request shall simultaneously submit its direct testimony with the tariff.

(2) Except when the Commission orders the filing of a tariff, when a public utility submits a tariff for commission approval but requests the tariff become effective in fewer than thirty (30) days, the commission shall establish a case file for the tariff. In addition, the public utility shall file a Motion for Expedited Treatment and comply with the expedited treatment portion of these rules. The tariff and all pleadings, orders, briefs, and correspondence shall be filed in the case file established for the tariff.

(3) When a pleading, which objects to a tariff or requests the suspension of a tariff, is filed, the commission shall establish a case file for the tariff and shall file the tariff and pleading in that case file. All subsequent pleadings, orders, briefs, and correspondence concerning the tariff shall be filed in the case file established for the tariff. Any pleading to suspend a tariff shall attach a copy of the tariff and include a certificate of service to confirm that the party who submitted the tariff has been served with the pleading.

(4) A case file shall be established for a tariff filing in which the commission is required by law or requested by the party filing the tariff to specifically approve the tariff.

(5) A case file will not be established to consider tariff sheets submitted by a regulated utility which do not meet the circumstances of sections (1)–(4) of this rule, except that a case file shall be established when tariff sheets are suspended by the commission on its own motion or when suspended upon the recommendation of staff.

(6) When a public utility extends the effective date of a tariff, it shall file a letter extending the tariff effective date in the official case file. Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules, this letter may be filed by a nonattorney.

4 CSR 240-2.070 Complaints

PURPOSE: This rule establishes the procedures for filing formal and informal complaints with the commission.

(1) Any person or public utility who feels aggrieved by an alleged violation of any tariff, statute, rule, order, or decision within the commission's jurisdiction may file a complaint. A complaint may also be filed by the commission on its own motion, the commission staff through the staff counsel, or the Office of the Public Counsel.

(2) A person who feels aggrieved by an alleged violation of any tariff, statute, rule, order, or decision within the commission's jurisdiction may file an informal complaint with the commission's consumer services department or file either a formal complaint or small formal complaint with the commission. Filing an informal complaint is not a prerequisite to filing a formal or small formal complaint; however, the presiding officer may direct that a pro se complainant be required to go through the informal complaint procedure before the formal complaint will be heard by the commission. If an allegedly aggrieved person initially files an informal complaint and is not satisfied with the outcome, such person may also file a formal or small formal complaint.

(3) Informal Complaints. The protections and processes of an informal complaint regarding service or billing practices are set out in 4 CSR 240-13. To file an informal complaint, the complainant shall state, either in writing, by telephone (consumer services hotline 1-800-392-4211 or Relay Missouri at 711), or in person at the commission's offices—

(A) The name, street address, and telephone number of each complainant and, if one (1) person asserts authority to act on behalf of the others, the source of that authority;

(B) The address where the utility service was rendered;

(C) The name and address of the party against whom the complaint is filed;

(D) The nature of the complaint and the complainant's interest therein;

(E) The relief requested; and

(F) The measures taken by the complainant to resolve the complaint.

(4) Formal Complaints. A formal complaint may be made by petition or complaint in writing, setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any person, corporation, or public utility, including any rule or charge established or fixed by or for any person, corporation, or public utility, in violation or claimed to be in violation of any provision of law or of any rule or order or decision of the commission. The formal complaint shall contain the following information:

(A) The name and street address of each complainant and, if different, the address where the subject utility service was rendered;

(B) The signature, telephone number, facsimile number, and email address of each complainant or their legal representative, where applicable;

(C) The name and address of the person, corporation, or public utility against whom the complaint is being filed;

(D) The nature of the complaint and the complainant's interest in the complaint, in a clear and concise manner;

(E) The relief requested;

(F) A statement as to whether the complainant has directly contacted the person, corporation, or public utility about which complaint is being made;

(G) The jurisdiction of the commission over the subject matter of the complaint; and

(H) If the complainant is an association, other than an incorporated association or other entity created by statute, a list of all its members.

(5) No complaint shall be entertained by the commission, except upon its own motion, as to the reasonableness of any rates or charges of any public utility unless the complaint is signed by the public counsel, the mayor or the president or chairman of the board of aldermen or a majority of the council or other legislative body of any town, village, county, or other political subdivision, within which the alleged violation occurred, or not fewer than twenty-five (25) consumers or purchasers or prospective consumers or purchasers of public utility gas, electricity, water, sewer, or telephone service as provided by law. Any public utility has the right to file a formal complaint on any of the grounds upon which complaints are allowed to be filed by other persons and the same procedure shall be followed as in other cases.

(6) The commission shall not be required to dismiss any complaint because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant.

(7) The commission, on its own motion or on the motion of a party, may after notice dismiss a complaint for failure to state a claim on which relief may be granted or failure to comply with any provision of these rules or an order of the commission, or may strike irrelevant allegations.

(8) Upon the filing of a complaint in compliance with these rules, the secretary of the commission shall serve by certified mail, postage prepaid, a copy of the complaint upon the person, corporation, or public utility against whom the complaint has been filed, which shall be accompanied by a notice that the matter complained of be satisfied or that the complaint be answered by the respondent, unless otherwise ordered, within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice.

(9) The respondent shall file an answer to the complaint within the time provided. All grounds of defense, both of law and of fact, shall be raised in the answer. If the respondent has no information or belief upon the subject sufficient to enable the respondent to answer an allegation of the complaint, the respondent may so state in the answer and assert a denial upon that ground.

(10) If the respondent in a complaint case fails to file a timely answer, the complainant's averments may be deemed admitted and an order granting default entered. The respondent has seven (7) days from the issue date of the order granting default to file a motion to set aside the order of default and extend the filing date of the answer. The commission may grant the motion to set aside the order of default and grant the respondent additional time to answer if it finds good cause.

(11) The commission may order, at any time after the filing of a complaint, an investigation by its staff as to the cause of the complaint. The staff shall file a report of its findings with the commission and all parties to the complaint case. The investigative report shall not be made public unless released in accordance with section 386.480, 392.210(2), or 393.140(3), RSMo, or during the course of the hearing involving the complaint.

(12) When the commission determines that a hearing should be held, the commission shall fix the time and place of the hearing. The commission shall serve notice upon the affected person, corporation, or public utility not fewer than ten (10) days before the time set for the hearing, unless the commission finds the public necessity requires that the hearing be held at an earlier date.

(13) All matters upon which a complaint may be founded may be joined in one (1) hearing and no motion for dismissal shall be entertained against a complainant for misjoinder of causes of action or grievances or misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties.

(14) When an order is rendered disposing of a case, the regulatory law judge shall cause the parties to be notified that the order will be final unless an application for rehearing is filed within the allotted number of days and provide information regarding the rehearing and appeal process.

(15) Small Formal Complaint Case. If a customer of a utility files a formal complaint regarding any dispute involving less than three thousand dollars ($3,000), the process set forth in this section shall be followed for such complaints. The provisions of sections (1)–(14) of this rule shall also apply to small formal complaints.

(A) When a complaint is filed that qualifies for handling as a small formal complaint, the assigned regulatory law judge shall direct the secretary of the commission to serve, by certified mail, postage prepaid, a copy of the complaint upon the person, corporation, or public utility against whom the complaint has been filed. At the same time, the regulatory law judge shall notify all parties that the complaint will proceed under the small formal complaint process. The person, corporation, or public utility against whom the complaint has been filed is allowed thirty (30) days after the date of notice to satisfy the complaint or file an answer. If the person, corporation, or public utility does not satisfy the complaint or file an answer within thirty (30) days, the regulatory law judge may issue an order granting default and deeming the allegations of the complaint to have been admitted by the respondent. A party in default has seven (7) days from the issue date of the order granting default to file a motion to set aside the order of default. The regulatory law judge may grant the motion to set aside the order of default and allow the respondent additional time to answer upon a showing of good cause.

(B) If any party believes that a complaint should or should not be handled as a small formal complaint, that party may file a motion with the commission requesting that the status of the complaint be changed. In response to such motion, or acting on its own motion, the commission shall, at its discretion, decide how the complaint shall be handled.

(C) Upon the filing of a complaint that qualifies under this section, the chief regulatory law judge shall assign the case to a regulatory law judge. To process small complaint cases in the timeliest manner and in the most convenient location for the customers, the commission hereby delegates the commission's authority to hear the case, make rulings, and issue a recommended report and order or other appropriate order disposing of the case to such regulatory law judge.

(D) The commission's staff shall, within forty-five (45) days after the complaint is filed, investigate the complaint and file a report detailing staff's findings and recommendations. The regulatory law judge may allow staff additional time to complete its investigation for good cause shown. The member or members of the commission's staff who investigate the complaint shall be available as a witness at the hearing if the regulatory law judge or any party wishes to call them to testify. Staff shall not advocate a position beyond reporting the results of its investigation. If staff believes it should advocate a position, it may file a motion to change the status of the complaint under subsection (B) of this section.

(E) Any hearing, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, shall be held in the county, or a city not within a county, where the subject utility service was rendered or within thirty (30) miles of where the service was rendered. The regulatory law judge may allow any party, witness, or attorney to participate in the hearing by telephone.

(F) Small formal complaint case hearings shall be conducted in an informal summary manner whenever possible, without affecting the rights of the parties—

1. The technical rules of evidence shall not apply;

2. The regulatory law judge shall have the authority to dispense with pre-filed written testimony; and

3. The regulatory law judge shall assume an affirmative duty to determine the merits of the claims and defenses of the parties and may question parties and witnesses.

(G) The regulatory law judge, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for discovery and a fair hearing, shall issue a recommended report and order within one hundred (100) days following the filing of the complaint, unless the regulatory law judge finds good cause to extend that time or the extension is otherwise agreed to by the parties.

(H) Any party subject to a recommended order disposing of the case or a recommended report and order issued by a regulatory law judge under this section may file with the commission, within ten (10) days of the issuance of the recommended order, comments supporting or opposing the recommended order. Any comments opposing the recommended order shall contain specific detailed grounds upon which it claims the order is unlawful, unjust, or unreasonable. The commission may approve or reject the recommended order based on the existing record without further hearing. If the commission rejects the recommended order, the commission shall issue its own order based on the evidence previously submitted, or upon such additional evidence, as the commission shall choose to receive.

4 CSR 240-2.075 Intervention

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the procedures by which an individual or entity may intervene in a case and allows for the filing of briefs by amicus curiae.

(1) A motion to intervene or add new member(s) shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the commission issues its order giving notice of the case, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

(2) A motion to intervene or add new member(s) shall include:

(A) The legal name of each association, person, or entity seeking intervention or to be added;

(B) The street and mailing address of the principal office or place of business of each association, person, or entity seeking intervention or to be added, or of their attorney;

(C) The email address, fax number, and telephone number, if any, of each association, person, or entity seeking intervention or to be added, or their attorney;

(D) If any applicant is an association, other than an incorporated association or other entity created by statute, a list of all of its members;

(E) A statement of the proposed intervenor's or new member's interest in the case and reasons for seeking intervention or to be added; and

(F) A statement as to whether the proposed intervenor or new member supports or opposes the relief sought or that the proposed intervenor or new member is unsure of the position it will take.

(3) The commission may grant a motion to intervene or add new member(s) if—

(A) The proposed intervenor or new member(s) has an interest which is different from that of the general public and which may be adversely affected by a final order arising from the case; or

(B) Granting the proposed intervention would serve the public interest.

(4) If the commission grants intervention to an association, other than an incorporated association or other entity created by statute, the commission is not granting intervention to the "association," but is granting intervention to the individual members of the association.

(5) For purposes of 4 CSR 240-2.080(16), service upon counsel for an association satisfies the requirement for service upon the individual members of the association.

(6) If any member(s) of an association, other than an incorporated association or other entity created by statute, that is a party to any case before the commission withdraws from the association during the pendency of a case, the association must file a notice of the member's(s') withdrawal in the official case file within five (5) days of the member's(s') withdrawal.

(7) If an association, other than an incorporated association or other entity created by statute, that is a party to any case before the commission wants to add an additional member(s) during the pendency of that case, the association must file a motion to add new member(s).

(8) If the commission finds that the name of any association, other than an incorporated association or other entity created by statute, seeking intervention in a case before the commission could lead to confusion or misidentification of that association or its members, the commission may order that the association be identified by an alternate name in that case.

(9) The commission may limit an intervention to particular issues or interests in a case.

(10) Motions to intervene or add new member(s) filed after the intervention date may be granted upon a showing of good cause. Any motion so filed must include a definitive statement whether or not the entity seeking intervention or to be added as a new member accepts the record established in that case, including the requirements of any orders of the commission, as of the date the motion is filed.

(11) Any person not a party to a case may petition the commission for leave to file a brief as an amicus curiae. The petition for leave must state the petitioner's interest in the matter and explain why an amicus brief is desirable and how the matters asserted are relevant to the determination of the case. The brief may be submitted simultaneously with the petition. Unless otherwise ordered by the commission, the brief must be filed no later than the initial briefs of the parties and comply with all applicable briefing requirements. If leave to file a brief as an amicus curiae is granted, the brief shall be deemed filed on the date submitted. An amicus curiae may not file a reply brief.

Reproduction of any of these documents may be by any process provided all copies are clear and permanently legible. Electronically filed pleadings or briefs shall be formatted in the same manner as paper filings.

(12) Pleadings and briefs which are not in substantial compliance with this rule, applicable statutes, or commission orders may not be accepted for filing. In addition, filings will be scanned for computer viruses before being uploaded into the commission's electronic system and may not be accepted if the filing is infected. The secretary of the commission may return these pleadings or briefs with a concise explanation of the deficiencies and the reasons for not accepting them for filing. Tendered filings which have been rejected may not be entered on the commission's docket. The mere fact of filing shall not constitute a waiver of any noncompliance with these rules, and the commission may require amendment of a pleading or entertain appropriate motions in connection with the pleading.

(13) Parties shall be allowed ten (10) days from the date of filing in which to respond to any pleading unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

(14) Any request for expedited treatment shall include the words "Motion for Expedited Treatment" in the title of the pleading. The pleading shall also set out with particularity the following:

(A) The date by which the party desires the commission to act;

(B) The harm that will be avoided, or the benefit that will accrue, including a statement of the negative effect, or that there will be no negative effect, on the party's customers or the general public, if the commission acts by the date desired by the party; and

(C) That the pleading was filed as soon as it could have been or an explanation why it was not.

(15) Unless otherwise provided by these rules or by other law, the party filing a pleading or brief shall serve every other party, including the staff counsel and the public counsel, a copy of the pleading or brief and cover letter. Any party may contact the secretary of the commission for the names and addresses of the parties in a case.

(16) Methods of Service.

(A) Any person entitled by law may serve a document on a represented party by—

- 1. Delivering it to the party's attorney;

- 3. Mailing it to the last known address of the party's attorney;
- 4. Transmitting it by facsimile machine to the party's attorney; or
- 5. Transmitting it to the email address of the party's attorney.

(B) Any person entitled by law may serve a document on an unrepresented party by—

- 1. Delivering it to the party; or

2. Mailing it to the party's last known address.

(C) Completion of Service.

1. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

2. Service by facsimile transmission is complete upon actual receipt.

3. Service by email is complete upon actual receipt.

(17) Every pleading or brief shall include a certificate of service. Such certificate of service shall be adequate proof of service.

(18) Any pleading may be amended within ten (10) days of filing, unless a responsive pleading has already been filed, or at any time by leave of the commission. Parties shall be allowed ten (10) days from the date of filing in which to respond to an amended pleading unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

(19) Any list of issues ordered by the commission must set out each question presented for decision. Each question presented should be clear and concise.

AUTHORITY: section 386.410, RSMo Supp. 1998. Original rule filed Aug. 24, 1999, effective April 30, 2000. Rescinded: Filed March 2, 2011, effective Oct. 30, 2011.

4 CSR 240-2.090 Discovery and Prehearings

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the procedures for depositions, written interrogatories, data requests, and prehearing conferences.

(1) Discovery may be obtained by the same means and under the same conditions as in civil actions in the circuit court. Sanctions for abuse of the discovery process or failure to comply with commission orders regarding discovery shall be the same as those provided for in the rules of civil procedure.

(2) Parties may use data requests as a means for discovery.

(A) Data request means an informal written request for documents or information that may be transmitted directly between attorneys, agents, or employees of the commission, public counsel, or other parties.

(B) Answers to data requests need not be under oath or be in any particular format, but shall be signed by a person who is able to attest to the truthfulness and correctness of the answers.

(C) The party to whom data requests are presented shall answer the requests within twenty (20) days after receipt unless otherwise agreed to by the parties to the data requests, or otherwise ordered by the commission.

(D) If the recipient objects to data requests or is unable to answer within twenty (20) days, the recipient shall serve all of the objections or reasons for its inability to answer in writing upon the requesting party within ten (10) days after receipt of the data requests, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

(E) If the recipient asserts an inability to answer the data requests within the twenty (20)-day time limit, the recipient shall include the date it will be able to answer the data requests simultaneously with its reasons for its inability to answer.

(F) The responding party shall promptly notify the requesting party of any changes to the answers previously given to a data request.

(G) Upon agreement by the parties or as ordered by the commission for good cause shown, the time limits for serving or answering data requests may be modified.

(H) Any data request issued to or by the staff of the commission shall be submitted and responded to in the commission's Electronic Filing and Information System (EFIS). However, if the technical limitations of EFIS make such submission or response difficult, the parties to the data requests may agree upon an alternative method of submission and response, or an alternative method of submission and response may be ordered by the commission.

(I) Sanctions for failure to answer data requests may include any of those provided for abuse of the discovery process in section (1) of this rule.

(3) All prehearing conferences shall be held as directed by the commission or presiding officer, and reasonable notice of the prehearing conference time shall be given to the parties involved.

(4) Any party may petition the commission to hold a prehearing conference at any time prior to the hearing.

(5) Failure to appear at a prehearing conference without previously having secured a continuance shall constitute grounds for dismissal of the party or the party's complaint, application or other action unless good cause for the failure to appear is shown.

(6) Parties may consider procedural and substantive matters at the prehearing conference which may aid in the disposition of the issues. Matters which require a decision may be presented to the presiding officer during the conference.

(7) Facts disclosed in the course of a prehearing conference and settlement offers are privileged and, except by agreement, shall not be used against participating parties unless fully substantiated by other evidence.

(8) Except when authorized by an order of the commission, the commission will not entertain any discovery motions, until the following requirements have been satisfied:

(A) Counsel for the moving party has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer by telephone or in person with opposing counsel concerning the matter prior to the filing of the motion. Merely writing a demand letter is not sufficient. Counsel for the moving party shall certify compliance with this rule in any discovery motion; and

(B) If the issues remain unresolved after the attorneys have conferred in person or by telephone, counsel shall arrange with the commission for an immediate telephone conference with the presiding officer and opposing counsel. No written discovery motion shall be filed until this telephone conference has been held.

(1) A request for a subpoena or a subpoena duces tecum requiring a person to appear and testify at the taking of a deposition or at a hearing, or for production of documents or records shall be filed on the form provided by the commission and shall be directed to the secretary of the commission. A request for a subpoena duces tecum shall specify the particular document or record to be produced, and shall state the reasons why the production is believed to be material and relevant.

(2) Except for a showing of good cause, a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall not be issued fewer than twenty (20) days before a hearing.

(3) Objections to a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum or motions to quash a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall be made within ten (10) days from the date the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is served.

(4) Subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum shall be signed and issued by the secretary of the commission, a commissioner or by a law judge pursuant to statutory delegation authority. The name and address of the witness shall be inserted in the original subpoena or subpoena duces tecum and a copy of the return shall be filed with the secretary of the commission. Subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum shall show at whose instance the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is issued. Blank subpoenas shall not be issued.

(5) If there is a failure to comply with a subpoena or a subpoena duces tecum after objections or a motion to quash have been determined by the commission, the commission by its counsel or the party seeking enforcement may apply to a judge of the circuit court of the county in which—the hearing has been held, is being held, or is scheduled to be held, or where the witness resides or may be found—for an order enforcing the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.

4 CSR 240-2.110 Hearings

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the procedures for the setting, notices, and conduct of hearings.

(1) The commission shall set the time and place for all hearings and serve notice as required by law. Additional notice may be served when the commission deems it to be appropriate.

(2) The presiding officer may order continuance of a hearing date for good cause.

(A) When a continuance has been granted at the request of the applicant or complainant, the commission may dismiss the case for failure to prosecute if it has not received a request from the applicant or complainant that the matter be again continued or set for hearing within ninety (90) days from the date of the order granting the continuance.

(B) Failure to appear at a hearing without previously having secured a continuance shall constitute grounds for dismissal of the party or the party's complaint, application or other action unless good cause for the failure to appear is shown.

(3) When pending actions involve related questions of law or fact, the commission may order a joint hearing of any or all the matters at issue, and may make other orders concerning cases before it to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(4) The presiding officer shall establish a procedural schedule through one (1) or more procedural orders in which the hearing and conference dates are set, date for filing testimony and pleadings are set, and any other applicable procedural parameters are established as determined necessary by the presiding officer or agreed to by the parties.

(5) The order of procedure in hearings shall be as follows, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the presiding officer:

(A) In all cases except investigation cases, the applicant or complainant shall open and close, with intervenors following the staff counsel, or his designee, and the public counsel in introducing evidence; and

(B) In investigation cases, the staff counsel, or his designee, shall open and close.

(6) A reporter appointed by the commission shall make a full and complete record of the entire proceeding in any formal hearing, or of any other hearing or proceeding at which the commission determines reporting is appropriate.

(7) Suggested corrections to the transcript of record shall be offered within ten (10) days after the transcript is filed, except for good cause shown. The suggestions shall be in writing and shall be filed in the official commission file. Objections to proposed corrections shall be made in writing within ten (10) days after the filing of the suggestions. The commission shall determine what changes, if any, shall be made in the record after a review of the suggested corrections and any objections.

(8) A party may request that the commission reopen the record for the taking of additional evidence if the request is made after the hearing has been concluded, but before briefs have been filed or oral argument presented, or before a decision has been issued in the absence of briefs or argument. Such a request shall be made by filing a motion to reopen the record for the taking of additional evidence. The motion shall assert the justification for taking additional evidence including material changes of fact or of law alleged to have occurred since the conclusion of the hearing. The petition shall also contain a brief statement of the proposed additional evidence, and an explanation as to why this evidence was not offered during the hearing.

4 CSR 240-2.115 Stipulations and Agreements

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the procedure when a nonunanimous stipulation and agreement is presented to the commission.

(1) Stipulations and Agreements.

(A) The parties may at any time file a stipulation and agreement as a proposed resolution of all or any part of a contested case. A stipulation and agreement shall be filed as a pleading.

(B) The commission may resolve all or any part of a contested case on the basis of a stipulation and agreement.

(2) Nonunanimous Stipulations and Agreements.

(A) A nonunanimous stipulation and agreement is any stipulation and agreement which is entered into by fewer than all of the parties.

(B) Each party shall have seven (7) days from the filing of a nonunanimous stipulation and agreement to file an objection to the nonunanimous stipulation and agreement. Failure to file a timely objection shall constitute a full waiver of that party's right to a hearing.

(C) If no party timely objects to a nonunanimous stipulation and agreement, the commission may treat the nonunanimous stipulation and agreement as a unanimous stipulation and agreement.

(D) A nonunanimous stipulation and agreement to which a timely objection has been filed shall be considered to be merely a position of the signatory parties to the stipulated position, except that no party shall be bound by it. All issues shall remain for determination after hearing.

(E) A party may indicate that it does not oppose all or part of a nonunanimous stipulation and agreement.

4 CSR 240-2.116 Dismissal

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the conditions under which the commission or an initiating party may dismiss a case or by which any party may be dismissed.

(1) An applicant or complainant may voluntarily dismiss an application or complaint without an order of the commission at any time before prepared testimony has been filed or oral evidence has been offered by filing a notice of dismissal with the commission. Once evidence has been offered or prepared testimony filed, an applicant or complainant may dismiss an action only by leave of the commission, or by written consent of all the parties.

(2) Cases may be dismissed for lack of prosecution if no action has occurred in the case for ninety (90) days and no party has filed a pleading requesting a continuance beyond that time.

(3) A party may be dismissed from a case for failure to comply with any order issued by the commission, including failure to appear at any scheduled proceeding such as a public hearing, prehearing conference, hearing, or mediation session.

(4) A case may be dismissed for good cause found by the commission after a minimum of ten (10) days notice to all parties involved.

4 CSR 240-2.117 Summary Disposition

PURPOSE: This rule provides for disposition of a contested case by disposition in the nature of summary judgment or judgment on the pleadings.

(1) Summary Determination.

(A) Except in a case seeking a rate increase or which is subject to an operation of law date, any party may by motion, with or without supporting affidavits, seek disposition of all or any part of a case by summary determination at any time after the filing of a responsive pleading, if there is a respondent, or at any time after the close of the intervention period. However, a motion for summary determination shall not be filed less than sixty (60) days prior to the hearing except by leave of the commission.

(B) Motions for summary determination shall state with particularity in separately numbered paragraphs each material fact as to which the movant claims there is no genuine issue, with specific references to the pleadings, testimony, discovery, or affidavits that demonstrate the lack of a genuine issue as to such facts. Each motion for summary determination shall have attached thereto a separate legal memorandum explaining why summary determination should be granted and testimony, discovery or affidavits not previously filed that are relied on in the motion. The movant shall serve the motion for summary determination upon all other parties not later than the date upon which the motion is filed with the commission.

(C) Not more than thirty (30) days after a motion for summary determination is served, any party may file and serve on all parties a response in opposition to the motion for summary determination. Attached thereto shall be any testimony, discovery or affidavits not previously filed that are relied on in the response. The response shall admit or deny each of movant's factual statements in numbered paragraphs corresponding to the numbered paragraphs in the motion for summary determination, shall state the reason for each denial, shall set out each additional material fact that remains in dispute, and shall support each factual assertion with specific references to the pleadings, testimony, discovery, or affidavits. The response may also have attached thereto a legal memorandum explaining why summary determination should not be granted.

(D) For good cause shown, the commission may continue the motion for summary determination for a reasonable time to allow an opposing party to conduct such discovery as is necessary to permit a response to the motion for summary determination.

(E) The commission may grant the motion for summary determination if the pleadings, testimony, discovery, affidavits, and memoranda on file show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact, that any party is entitled to relief as a matter of law as to all or any part of the case, and the commission determines that it is in the public interest. An order granting summary determination shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(F) If the commission grants a motion for summary determination, but does not dispose thereby of the entire case, it shall hold an evidentiary hearing to resolve the remaining issues. Those facts found in the order granting partial summary determination shall be established for purposes of the hearing.

(G) The commission may hear oral argument on a motion for summary determination.

(2) Determination on the Pleadings—Except in a case seeking a rate increase or which is subject to an operation of law date, the commission may, on its own motion or on the motion of any party, dispose of all or any part of a case on the pleadings whenever such disposition is not otherwise contrary to law or contrary to the public interest.

4 CSR 240-2.120 Presiding Officers

PURPOSE: This rule states the duties of presiding officers and the procedure for disqualifying them.

(1) A presiding officer shall have the duty to conduct full, fair and impartial hearings, to take appropriate action to avoid unnecessary delay in the disposition of cases, to maintain order, and shall possess all powers necessary to that end. The presiding officer may take action as may be necessary and appropriate to the discharge of duties, consistent with the statutory authority or other authorities under which the commission functions and with the rules and policies of the commission.

(2) Whenever any party shall deem the presiding officer for any reason to be disqualified to preside, or to continue to preside, in a particular case, the party may file with the secretary of the commission a motion to disqualify with affidavits setting forth the grounds alleged for disqualification. A copy of the motion shall be served by the commission on the presiding officer whose removal is sought and the presiding officer shall have seven (7) days from the date of service within which to reply.

4 CSR 240-2.125 Procedures for Alternative Dispute Resolution

PURPOSE: This rule establishes procedures which will allow parties to utilize alternative dispute resolution methods in order to resolve issues or the entire matter in dispute.

(1) Settlement Negotiations.

(A) When the parties agree that the participation of a presiding officer in the settlement process would be beneficial, those parties shall file a motion for appointment of a settlement officer for that case. The motion shall contain—

1. A statement that all parties agree to the procedure;

2. A list of the issues to be addressed or matters the parties wish the presiding officer to aid them in resolving; and

3. A date by which a settlement will be reached or settlement negotiations under this procedure will end.

(B) If the commission grants the motion for a settlement officer, it shall issue an order scheduling a settlement conference and shall appoint a presiding officer to participate in settlement negotiations.

(C) The negotiations and statements of the parties or attorneys made at the settlement conference shall be off the record and shall not be made a part of the official case.

(D) If a settlement is not reached before the date specified by the parties in their motion, the procedure shall end unless the parties all agree to an extension and the procedure is extended by order of the commission.

(2) Mediation.

(A) The commission may order mediation before any further proceeding in a case.

(B) As the commission deems appropriate, or upon a request for mediation, the commission may appoint a presiding officer or other neutral third party other than the presiding officer assigned to the case to mediate the dispute.

(C) All other actions on the case shall cease and all time limitations shall be tolled pending the completion of mediation process, except as otherwise provided by law.

(D) The mediator shall be disqualified from conducting an evidentiary hearing relating to that particular case and shall not make any communication regarding the settlement or mediation discussions in the case to any commissioner or the presiding officer appointed to preside over the case.

(E) Failure to appear and participate in good faith in commission ordered mediation shall be grounds for sanctions including dismissal or default of the noncompliant party.

4 CSR 240-2.130 Evidence

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the rules of evidence in any hearing before the commission.

(1) In any hearing, these rules supplement section 536.070, RSMo.

(2) If any information contained in a document on file as a public record with the commission is offered in evidence, the document need not be produced as an exhibit unless directed otherwise by the presiding officer, but may be received in evidence by reference, provided that the particular portions of the document shall be specifically identified and are relevant and material. The information may be assigned an exhibit number for identification.

(3) The presiding officer shall rule on the admissibility of all evidence. Evidence to which an objection is sustained, at the request of the party seeking to introduce the same or at the instance of the commission, nevertheless may be heard and preserved in the record, together with any cross-examination with respect to the evidence and any rebuttal of the evidence, unless it is wholly irrelevant, repetitious, privileged or unduly long. When objections are made to the admission or exclusion of evidence, the grounds relied upon shall be stated briefly. Formal exceptions to rulings shall be unnecessary and need not be taken.

(4) In extraordinary circumstances where prompt decision by the commission is necessary to promote substantial justice, the presiding officer may refer a matter to the commission for determination during the progress of the hearing.

(5) The rules of privilege are effective to the same extent that they are in civil actions.

(6) Format for Prepared Testimony.

(A) It shall be typed or printed, in black type on a white page that is eight and one-half inches by eleven inches (8 1/2" × 11").

(B) It shall be double-spaced and have pages numbered consecutively at the bottom right-hand corner or bottom center beginning with the first page as page 1.

(C) If not filed electronically, it shall be filed unfolded and stapled together at the top left-hand margin or bound at an edge in booklet form.

(D) It shall have at least a one-inch (1") margin on the top, bottom, and both sides.

(E) Schedules shall bear the word "schedule," and the number of the schedule shall be typed in the lower right-hand margin of the first page of the schedule.

(F) All prepared testimony and other exhibits and schedules shall contain the following information in the following format on the upper right-hand corner of a cover sheet:

Exhibit No.: (To be marked by the hearing reporter)
Issue: (If known at the time of filing)
Witness: (Full name of witness)
Type of Exhibit: (Specify whether direct, rebuttal, or other type of exhibit)

Sponsoring Party:

Case No.:

Date Testimony Prepared:

(G) It shall be filed on line-numbered pages.

(H) Testimony that addresses more than one (1) issue shall contain a table of contents.

(I) Electronically filed prepared testimony shall be formatted and labeled in the same manner as paper filings.

(J) Printing on both sides of the page is encouraged.

(7) For the purpose of filing prepared testimony, direct, rebuttal, and surrebuttal testimony are defined as follows:

(A) Direct testimony shall include all testimony and exhibits asserting and explaining that party's entire case-in-chief;

(B) Where all parties file direct testimony, rebuttal testimony shall include all testimony which is responsive to the testimony and exhibits contained in any other party's direct case. A party need not file direct testimony to be able to file rebuttal testimony;

(C) Where only the moving party files direct testimony, rebuttal testimony shall include all testimony which explains why a party rejects, disagrees or proposes an alternative to the moving party's direct case; and

(D) Surrebuttal testimony shall be limited to material which is responsive to matters raised in another party's rebuttal testimony.

(8) Except as set out in this section, the prepared testimony of each witness shall be filed separately and shall be accompanied by an affidavit providing the witness's oath. In lieu of prepared direct testimony, any party may file a report that presents in narrative form, and with complete and comprehensive detail, the analysis and conclusions of one (1) or more expert witness(es) and the facts and information on which they relied. In any report, the contributing expert witnesses shall be listed together with an indication of the portion or portions of the report to which each contributed. The qualifications of each contributing expert witness shall be attached to the report as a schedule. Any such report shall comply with the commission's requirements in sections (6) and (7).

(9) In any case, the commission or presiding officer may direct that testimony be taken live rather than prepared in advance.

(10) No party shall be permitted to supplement prefiled prepared direct, rebuttal, or surrebuttal testimony unless ordered by the presiding officer or the commission. A party shall not be precluded from having a reasonable opportunity to address matters not previously disclosed which arise at the hearing. This provision does not forbid the filing of supplemental direct testimony for the purpose of replacing projected financial information with actual results.

(11) Any or all parties may file a stipulation as to the facts. This stipulation shall not preclude the offering of additional evidence by any party except as specified in the stipulation.

(12) Exhibits shall be legible and, unless otherwise authorized by the commission, shall be prepared on a standard eight and one-half by eleven inch (8 1/2" × 11")-size page. The pages of each exhibit shall be numbered and rate comparisons and other figures shall be set forth in tabular form.

(13) Exhibits shall be tendered to the reporter at the time of hearing without being prenumbered by the offering party, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer.

(14) All exhibits shall be marked at the time of hearing, using a single series of numbers, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer.

(15) Unless the presiding officer directs otherwise, when exhibits that have not previously been filed are offered in evidence, the original shall be furnished to the reporter, and the party offering exhibits also shall be prepared to furnish a copy to each commissioner, the presiding officer, and each party.

(16) The presiding officer may require the production of further evidence upon any issue. The presiding officer may authorize the filing of specific evidence as a part of the record within a fixed time after submission, reserving exhibit numbers, and setting other conditions for such production.

(17) Unless otherwise ordered, any objection to the admission of a post-hearing exhibit must be filed within ten (10) days of the date the exhibit was filed.

State ex rel. Utility Consumers Council v. Public Service Commission, 562 S.W.2d 688 (Mo. App. 1978). At a hearing on the issuance of a certificate of convenience and necessity, the commission denied appellant consumers council opportunity to cross-examine electric utility's witnesses on certain testimony regarding costs. The proprietary nature of the cost information involved does not protect it from cross-examination by consumers council, and denial of right to such cross-examination was improper.

4 CSR 240-2.135 Confidential Information

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the procedures for handling confidential information in cases before the commission.

(1) The commission recognizes two (2) levels of protection for information that should not be made public.

(A) Proprietary information is information concerning trade secrets, as well as confidential or private technical, financial, and business information.

(B) Highly confidential information is information concerning—

1. Material or documents that contain information relating directly to specific customers;

2. Employee-sensitive personnel information;

3. Marketing analysis or other market-specific information relating to services offered in competition with others;

4. Marketing analysis or other market-specific information relating to goods or services purchased or acquired for use by a company in providing services to customers;

5. Reports, work papers, or other documentation related to work produced by internal or external auditors or consultants;

6. Strategies employed, to be employed, or under consideration in contract negotiations; and

7. Information relating to the security of a company's facilities.

(2) Protective Order. In addition to discovery and testimony which may be designated as highly confidential or proprietary without a protective order from the commission as set out in this rule, any person may seek an order protecting information from disclosure by the commission. A request for a protective order shall be made as follows:

(A) By filing a separate pleading denominated "Motion for Protective Order";

(B) The pleading shall state with particularity why the moving party seeks protection and what harm may occur if the information is made public;

(C) The pleading shall also state whether any of the information for which a claim of confidentiality is made can be found in any other open public document;

(D) The information provided to the commission may be designated as highly confidential or proprietary while the motion is pending;

(E) Any information designated as highly confidential or proprietary shall be provided in a redacted public version and a complete confidential version the same as for testimony as set out in section (11) of this rule; and

(F) If the motion is granted, the information shall be protected from disclosure as set out in sections (3)–(22) of this rule.

(3) When a party seeks discovery of information that the party from whom discovery is sought believes to be confidential, the party from whom discovery is sought may designate the information as proprietary or highly confidential.

(A) No order from the commission is necessary before a party in any case pending before the commission may designate material as proprietary or highly confidential and such information shall be protected as provided in this rule.

(B) The party that designates information as proprietary or highly confidential must inform, in writing, the party seeking discovery of the reason for the designation at the same time it responds to the discovery request. If the party seeking discovery disagrees with the designation placed on the information, it must utilize the informal discovery dispute resolution procedures set forth at 4 CSR 240-2.090(8). If the party seeking discovery continues to disagree with the designation placed on the information, it may file a motion challenging the designation.

(C) This rule does not require the disclosure of any information that would be protected from disclosure by any privilege, rule of the commission, or the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4) Proprietary information may be disclosed only to the attorneys of record for a party and to employees of a party who are working as subject-matter experts for those attorneys or who intend to file testimony in that case, or to persons designated by a party as an outside expert in that case.

(A) The party disclosing information designated as proprietary shall serve the information on the attorney for the requesting party.

(B) If a party wants any employee or outside expert to review proprietary information, the party must identify that person to the disclosing party by name, title, and job classification before disclosure. Furthermore, the person to whom the information is to be disclosed must comply with the certification requirements of section (7) of this rule.

(C) A customer of a utility may view his or her own customer-specific information, even if that information is otherwise designated as proprietary.

(5) Highly confidential information may be disclosed only to the attorneys of record, or to outside experts that have been retained for the purpose of the case.

(A) Employees, officers, or directors of any of the parties in a proceeding, or any affiliate of any party, may not be outside experts for purposes of this rule.

(B) The party disclosing highly confidential information may, at its option, make such information available only on the furnishing party's premises, unless the discovering party can show good cause for the disclosure of the information off-premises.

(C) The person reviewing highly confidential information may not make copies of the documents containing the information and may make only limited notes about the information. Any such notes must also be treated as highly confidential.

(D) If a party wants an outside expert to review highly confidential information, the party must identify that person to the disclosing party before disclosure. Furthermore, the outside expert to whom the information is to be disclosed must comply with the certification requirements of section (7) of this rule.

(E) Subject to subsection (5)(B), the party disclosing information designated as highly confidential shall serve the information on the attorney for the requesting party.

(F) A customer of a utility may view his or her own customer-specific information, even if that information is otherwise designated as highly confidential.

(6) If any party believes that information must be protected from disclosure more rigorously than would be provided by a highly confidential designation, it may file a motion explaining what information must be protected, the harm to the disclosing entity or the public that might result from disclosure of the information, and an explanation of how the information may be disclosed to the parties that require the information while protecting the interests of the disclosing entity and the public.

(7) Any employee of a party that wishes to review proprietary information, or any outside expert retained by a party that wishes to review highly confidential or proprietary information must first certify in writing that he or she will comply with the requirements of this rule.

(A) The certification must include the signatory's full name, permanent address, title or position, date signed, the case number of the case for which the signatory will view the information, and the identity of the party for whom the signatory is acting.

(B) The signed certificate shall be filed in the case.

(C) The party seeking disclosure of the highly confidential or proprietary information must provide a copy of the certificate to the disclosing party before disclosure is made.

(8) Attorneys possessing proprietary or highly confidential information or testimony may make such information or testimony available only to those persons authorized to review such information or testimony under the restrictions established in sections (4) and (5).

(9) If information to be disclosed in response to a discovery request is information concerning another entity—whether or not a party to the case—which the other entity has indicated is confidential, the disclosing party must notify the other entity of its intent to disclose the information. If the other entity informs the disclosing party that it wishes to protect the material or information, the disclosing party must designate the material or information as proprietary or highly confidential under the provisions of this rule.

(10) Any party may use proprietary or highly confidential information in prefiled testimony, in a pleading, or at hearing, if the same level of confidentiality assigned by the disclosing party, or the commission, is maintained. Before including nonpublic information that it has obtained outside this proceeding in its pleading or testimony, a party must ascertain from the source of the information whether that information is claimed to be proprietary or highly confidential.

(11) A party may designate portions of prefiled or live testimony as proprietary or highly confidential. Prefiled testimony that contains information designated as proprietary or highly confidential must be filed as follows:

(A) A public version of the prefiled testimony must be filed along with the proprietary or highly confidential version of the testimony. For the public version, the proprietary or highly confidential portions must be obliterated or removed. The proprietary pages must be marked "P" and the removal of proprietary information shall be indicated by one (1) asterisk before and after the information, e.g., proprietary information removed. The highly confidential pages must be marked "HC" with the removal of highly confidential information indicated by underlining and two (2) asterisks before and after the highly confidential information, e.g., highly confidential information removed. The designated information must be removed with blank spaces remaining so that the lineation and pagination of the public version remains the same as the highly confidential and proprietary versions;

(B) For the nonpublic version of the prefiled testimony, the proprietary pages must be marked "P" and the proprietary information indicated by one (1) asterisk before and after the information, e.g., Proprietary. The highly confidential pages shall be stamped "HC" with the highly confidential information indicated by underlining and by two (2) asterisks before and after the highly confidential information, e.g., Highly Confidential; and

(C) At the hearing, the party offering the prefiled testimony must present a public version of the testimony in which the proprietary or highly confidential portions are obliterated or removed. The public version of the testimony will be marked as Exhibit _____. The offering party must also present a separate copy of the prefiled testimony containing proprietary or highly confidential information, sealed in an envelope. The version of the testimony containing proprietary or highly confidential information will be marked as

Exhibit __P or HC, as appropriate.

(12) Not later than ten (10) days after testimony is filed that contains information designated as proprietary or highly confidential, any party that wishes to challenge the designation of the testimony may file an appropriate motion with the commission.

(A) If the designation of the testimony is challenged, the party asserting that the information is proprietary or highly confidential must, not later than ten (10) days, unless a shorter time is ordered, file a pleading establishing the specific nature of the information that it seeks to protect and establishing the harm that may occur if that information is disclosed to the public.

(B) If the asserting party fails to file the pleading required by this section, the commission may order that the designated information be treated as public information.

(13) If a response to a discovery request requires the duplication of material that is so voluminous, or of such a nature that copying would be unduly burdensome, the furnishing party may require that the material be reviewed on its own premises, or at some other location, within the state of Missouri.

(14) If prefiled testimony includes information that has previously been designated as highly confidential or proprietary in another witness's prefiled testimony, that information must again be designated as highly confidential or proprietary.

(15) All live testimony, including cross-examination and oral argument, which reveals information that is designated as proprietary or highly confidential may be offered only after the hearing room is cleared of all persons except those persons to whom the highly confidential or proprietary information is available under this rule. The transcript of such live testimony or oral argument will be kept under seal and copies will be provided only to the commission and the attorneys of record. The contents of such transcripts may not be disclosed to anyone other than those permitted access to the designated information under this rule.

(16) Proprietary or highly confidential information may not be quoted in briefs or other pleadings unless those portions of the briefs or other pleading are also treated as proprietary or highly confidential.

(17) All persons who have access to information under this rule must keep the information secure and may neither use nor disclose such information for any purpose other than preparation for and conduct of the proceeding for which the information was provided. This rule shall not prevent the commission's staff or the Office of the Public Counsel from using highly confidential or proprietary information obtained under this rule as the basis for additional investigations or complaints against any utility company.

(18) After receiving an appropriate writ of review, the commission will deliver proprietary and highly confidential testimony constituting part of the record before the commission to the reviewing court under seal, unless otherwise directed by the court.

(19) Within ninety (90) days after the completion of the proceeding, including judicial review, all copies of all proprietary and highly confidential information, testimony, exhibits, transcripts, or briefs in the possession of any party must be returned to the party claiming a confidential interest in such information if that party requests that the information be returned. Otherwise, the information must be destroyed by the party possessing such information. Any notes pertaining to such information must be destroyed.

(20) The provisions of sections (4), (5), (7), (8), and (19) of this rule do not apply to officers or employees of the commission or to the public counsel or employees of the Office of the Public Counsel. The officers or employees of the commission and the public counsel and employees of the Office of the Public Counsel are subject to the nondisclosure provisions of section 386.480, RSMo. Neither the officers or employees of the commission, nor the public counsel and the employees of the Office of the Public Counsel shall use or disclose any information obtained in discovery for any purpose other than in the performance of their duties.

(21) Outside experts of the staff of the commission or the Office of the Public Counsel who have been contracted to be witnesses in the proceeding have access to designated information and testimony on the same basis as the staff of the commission and the Office of the Public Counsel except that the outside expert must comply with the provisions of sections (7) and (19). Outside experts of the staff of the commission and the Office of the Public Counsel who have not been contracted to be witnesses in the proceeding are subject to all provisions of this rule.

(22) A claim that information is proprietary or highly confidential is a representation to the commission that the claiming party has a reasonable and good faith belief that the subject document or information is, in fact, proprietary or highly confidential.

(23) The commission may waive or grant a variance from any provision of this rule for good cause shown.

PURPOSE: This rule sets forth the procedures for filing briefs and presenting oral arguments in any hearing.

(2) Unless otherwise ordered by the commission or presiding officer, initial post-hearing briefs shall be filed no later than twenty (20) days after the date on which the complete transcript of the hearing is filed.

(3) Unless otherwise ordered by the commission or presiding officer, the parties shall have ten (10) days after the filing of the initial briefs to file their reply briefs.

(4) Unless otherwise ordered by the commission or presiding officer, the time allowed for oral argument shall be—

(A) For an applicant or complainant, thirty (30) minutes, which may be divided between the initial argument and reply argument, but no more than one-third (1/3) of the time shall be consumed by the reply argument; and

(B) For all other parties, a total of fifteen (15) minutes each.

(5) Unless otherwise ordered by the commission or presiding officer, the parties may file pre-hearing briefs, statements of position, and proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

4 CSR 240-2.150 Decisions of the Commission

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes the method of issuing commission orders and the effective date of such orders.

(1) The record of a case shall stand submitted for consideration by the commission after the recording of all evidence or, if applicable, after the filing of briefs or the presentation of oral argument.

(2) The commission's orders shall be in writing and shall be issued as soon as practicable after the record has been submitted for consideration.

(3) Every order of the commission shall be served by mailing a certified copy, with postage prepaid, to all parties of record.

(4) The commission may, at its discretion, issue a preliminary order and allow parties to provide responses to the preliminary order. The commission may then issue its order after reviewing the responses of the parties.

(5) As technology permits, and where the parties have provided their electronic mail address, the commission will attempt to issue an electronic copy of each order.

4 CSR 240-2.160 Rehearings and Reconsideration

(1) Applications for rehearing may be filed pursuant to statute.

(2) Motions for reconsideration of procedural and interlocutory orders may be filed within ten (10) days of the date the order is issued, unless otherwise ordered by the commission. Motions for reconsideration shall set forth specifically the ground(s) on which the applicant considers the order to be unlawful, unjust, or unreasonable. At any time before a final order is issued, the commission may, on its own motion, reconsider, correct, or otherwise amend any order or notice issued in the case.

(3) The filing of a motion for reconsideration shall not excuse any party from complying with any order of the commission, nor operate in any manner to stay or postpone the enforcement of any order, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.
