OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

In the Matter of the Withdrawal of) Tariff for Retail Services Pursuant to) Section 392.461 RSMo 2010)

File No. XE-2012-0138
Tariff No. YX-2012-0201

STAFF MOTION

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission and for its Motion states:

1. On August 28, 2011, §392.461 was enacted by H.B. 338, allowing regulated telecommunications companies to elect a waiver of the requirement that they offer retail services to residential or business end users only through tariff. The new law allows companies to withdraw such tariffs upon written notice to the Commission, but requires the company to publish generally available retail prices on a website.

2. On November 1, 2011, Verizon Enterprise Solutions, LLC notified the Commission of its withdrawal of its Tariff No. 4, to be effective December 1, 2011. The Company noted the address of the website on which its rates, terms and conditions are available.

3. The Staff has reviewed the Notice, and finds that it comports with the Commission's Rules concerning the withdrawal of tariffs (the thirty-day notice in 4 CSR 240-3.545(18)) and the provisions of §392.461.

WHEREFORE, the Staff moves that the Commission allow the withdrawal of the above-referenced tariff to take effect by operation of law, after which this matter may be closed without further action.

Respectfully submitted,

Colleen M. Dale

Subject: Staff's Recommendation to Approve Verizon Enterprise Solutions LLC.'s request to Detariff

Date: November 29, 2011

On November 1, 2011 Verizon Enterprise Solutions LLC (Verizon) filed a request to detariff its Missouri PSC Tariff Number 4. Verizon states that it files the request pursuant to House Bill 338, enacted on July 8, 2011. Verizon further states that its rates, terms, and conditions will be posted on its website.

The Telecommunications Department Staff (Staff) has examined Verizon's proposal and finds it in conformance to §392.461 RSMo., which permits detariffing of retail telecommunications services. Therefore, Staff recommends approval of the proposal.
