TARIFF FORMAT

NOV 19 1997

- A. Sheet Numbering - Sheet numbers appear in the upper right corner of the page. ^{Sheets are numbered sequentially.} However, new sheets are occasionally added to the tariff. When a new sheet is added between sheets already in effect, a decimal is added. For example, a new sheet added between sheets 8 and 9 would be 8.1.
- B. Sheet Revision Numbers - Revision numbers also appears in the upper right corner of each page. These numbers are used to determine the most current version on file with the Missouri Public Service Commission. For example, the 3rd revised Sheet 8 cancels the 2nd revised Sheet 8.
- C. Paragraph Number Sequences - There are nine levels of paragraph coding. Each level of coding is subservient to its next higher level.

~~RECEIVED~~SECTION 1 - RULES AND REGULATIONS

NOV 19 1997

1.1 Undertaking of the CarrierMISSOURI
Public Service Commission

The Company's services and facilities are furnished for communications originating and terminating within the state of Missouri under the terms of this tariff.

1.2 Limitations

1.2.1 Service is offered subject to the availability of the necessary facilities and equipment, or both facilities and equipment, and subject to the provisions of this tariff.

1.2.2 The Company reserves the right to discontinue or limit services when the service is being used in violation of provisions of this tariff, or in violation of the law.

1.2.3 The services provided under this tariff are directly or indirectly controlled by the Company and the Customer may not alter or affect the services nor transfer or assign its use of services without the express written consent of the Company, which consent may be withheld, without limitation, by Comm/Net Services Corporation. If in its sole discretion at any time such alteration, effect, transfer, or assignment would result in an interruption of the services or a change in the Customer's locations to which the services are to be provided.

1.2.4 In the event prior written permission from the Company is given for any assignment or transfer, all regulations and conditions contained in this tariff shall apply to all such permitted assignees or transferee.

1.2.5 Service may be discontinued without notice by blocking traffic to certain cities, or exchanges, or by blocking calls using certain authorization codes, when the Company deems it necessary to take such action to prevent unlawful use of its services. Service will be restored as soon as it can be provided without undue risk to the Company, its customers and users of the service.

1.2 Limitations (Continued)MISSOURI
Public Service Commission

1.2.6 A customer shall not use any service mark or trademark of the Company or refer to the Company in connection with any product, equipment, promotion, or publications without the prior written consent of the Company.

1.2.7 No agent or employee of any customer or another entity shall be deemed to be an agent or employee of the Company without prior written authority from the Company.

1.3 Liability of the Company

The Company has no liability for damages arising out of mistakes, interruption, delays, errors, omissions, additions, or defects in the transmission occurring in the course of furnishing services or facilities. The Company's liability for such damages occurring in the course of furnishing the service or facilities but not caused by its gross negligence or willful misconduct or that of its employees or agents, in no event shall exceed an amount that is equivalent to the proportionate charge to the Customer for the period during which such mistakes, interruption, delays, errors, omissions, additions, or defects occur.

1.4 Interruption of Service

1.4.1 Credit allowance for the interruption of service is subject to the general liability provisions set forth herein. The Customer shall receive no credit allowance for the interruption of service which is due to the failure of channels or equipment provided by the Customer. It shall be the obligation of the Customer to notify the Company immediately of any interruption in service for which a credit allowance is claimed. Before giving such notice, the Customer shall ascertain that the trouble is not being caused by any action or omission within the Customer's control, or is not in wiring or equipment, if any, furnished by the the Customer in connection with the Company's services or facilities.

1.4 Allowance For Interruptions (Continued)

1.4.5 Credit for an interruption period begins after Customer notifies the Company of the interruption or when the Company becomes aware thereof. An interruption period ends when the service is restored. For purposes of credit computation, every month shall be considered to have 720 hours. No credit shall be allowed for an interruption of less than two hours.

1.4.6 The Customer shall be credited for an interruption of two hours or more at the rate of 1/720th of the monthly charge for the service affected for each hour or major fraction in which the interruption continues.

1.5 Obligations of the Customer

1.5.1 The Customer is obligated to place any order for origination, termination, and/or changes to service or facilities; pay all charges for service or facilities rendered by the Company, except as set forth herein; and to comply with all the Company's regulations governing the provision of service or facilities. The Customer is also responsible for assuring that its authorized users comply with the regulations as specified in this tariff.

1.5.2 When placing an order for service or facilities, the Customer shall provide:

- A. Name(s) and address(es), and telephone number(s) of the person(s) to whom notices shall be directed to by the Company;
- B. Location(s) at which the services and/or facilities are to be provided; and
- C. Other information as may be required to provide service to the Customer.

1.5.3 All customers are responsible for taking all the necessary legal steps for interconnecting their terminal equipment or communications systems with the Company facilities or services and shall secure all licenses, permits, rights-of-way, and other arrangements necessary for such interconnection.

- 1.7.1 The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges for services furnished.
- 1.7.2 Billing will be payable upon receipt. Interest at the rate of 1.50% per month (unless a lower rate is prescribed by law, in which event at the highest rate allowed by law) will accrue upon any undisputed unpaid amount commencing thirty-five (35) days after date of billing.
- 1.7.3 Any objections to billed charges must be promptly reported to the Company or its billing agent. If notice of a dispute of charges is not received by the Company within thirty (30) days after an invoice is rendered, such invoice may be deemed to be correct and binding. Adjustments to invoices shall be made to the extent that circumstances exist which reasonably indicate that such changes are appropriate.
- 1.7.4 In the event the Company incurs fees or expenses, including attorney's fees, in collecting, or attempting to collect any charges owed the Company, the debtor will be liable to the Company for the payment of all such fees and expenses reasonably incurred.
- 1.7.5 A separate charge is imposed on all charges for calls that originate in states which levy a gross receipts tax on the Company's operations. This charge is based upon a factor of the gross receipts tax and any other applicable taxes imposed directly or indirectly upon the Company.
- 1.7.6 When payment for services is made by check or draft and is returned to the Company for any reason, including but not limited to insufficient funds, a charge of $35.00, unless a lower fee has been prescribed by law in which event a charge equal to such lower fee, may be made by the Company for each item returned by the banking institution on which it is written.
- 1.7.7 If a check, draft or other payment instrument remitted to Carrier is dishonored more than once during a twelve (12) month period, the Company may refuse acceptance of further such payment methods and place the debtor on a cash basis. Under a cash basis, the Company may require payment in the form of U.S. currency, money orders, or an instrument that is guaranteed or issued by a third party that is acceptable to the Company.

2.1 DefinitionsMISSOURI
Public Service CommissionAccess Code

A sequence of numbers that, when dialed, connects a Consumer to an interexchange carrier that is associated with that sequence. Dialing sequences which utilize a 950-10XX, 1-800, or 10XXX prefix are examples of access code arrangements available to Customers.

Access Arrangement

The facility from a local exchange carrier or other common carrier which connects a subscriber's location to the Company's point of presence in a LATA. Presubscription is an example of an access arrangement used by the Company.

Accounting Code

A code consisting of two or more digits which is available to Customers for identifying individual users and thereby allocate the cost of long distance service.

Application for Service

A standard order form which includes all pertinent billing, technical, administrative, and other descriptive information which will enable the Company to provide telecommunications service to a Customer.

Authorization Code

Unique numeric codes (usually consisting of five or more digits), which may be made available to Customers and authorized users to identify themselves as being entitled to access and use the Company's services.

Authorized User

An individual, firm, corporation, or other entity authorized by the Customer to utilize communications services provided by the Company.

Billed Party

The individual or entity responsible for the payment of charges associated with calls placed using services provided by the Company.

An entity with whom the Company has contracted to secure billing and collection arrangements. Local exchange carriers, clearing houses, and issuers of commercial credit cards are examples of billing agents which may be utilized by the Company.

Called Station

Denotes the terminating point of a telephone call (i.e. the called telephone number).

Calling Station

Denotes the point from which a call is placed (also referred to as the originating location).

Carrier Recognized Holidays

The following days are recognized as holidays for billing purposes: New Year's Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day, except as otherwise specified herein.

Company

Comm/Net Services Corporation

Credit Application

A standard form which is used by the Company to assess a Customer's credit worthiness prior to the Company's arranging the installation of any facilities or the provision of any Services to a Customer.

Customer

An individual, firm, corporation, agency, or other entity which orders service and is responsible for the payment of charges and compliance with the tariff provisions set forth herein. For billing purposes, a Customer is considered to be an account. If a person, firm, or other entity orders the service in more than one city served by the Company, or requests the assignment of more than one account number in a particular city, each such account may be treated as a separate Customer for billing purposes.
