

The Company's underlying charge for natural gas for firm sales customers will increase from $.51823 to $.56531 per therm. The impact of the new natural gas PGA rates on a typical residential customer will vary by month depending on usage. During March, the first month in which the new rates will be effective, the bill for such customer will increase by $5.60, or 5.3% compared to existing rates.