LOCAL MARKET TRIAL

A. Purpose

A market trial is intended to enable the Company to test it's ability to provide local exchange services to the general public. During the trial, the Company will test its network infrastructure, including both switching and distribution facility components. The Company will also test support systems which are required to establish, provision, operate and maintain services, whether such systems are provided solely by the Company or in combination with systems provided by other carriers or vendors. A market trial is not an offer to provide service to the general public. The market trial, which will be geographically dispersed as the build out of Company facilities progresses, will conclude on December 31, 2002. (T)

B. Eligibility

A maximum of 100 targeted participants may be provided services offered as part of the local market trial.

C. Availability

Services subject to the local market trial are available in the Bourbon, Cuba and St. James exchanges.

D. Services

Exchange services, both Residence and Business, offered as part of the local market trial may include basic local exchange service, optional services, operator services, E911 service and other services planned for offering to the general public.

APPLICATION

The rules and regulations specified herein apply to the intrastate Services and facilities furnished by Fidelity Communication Services II, Inc. hereinafter referred to as the Telephone Company, or Company, or FCS II. The Company operates as a competitive telecommunications company. Failure on the part of the subscribers to observe the rules and statutes of the Missouri Public Service Commission, after due notice of such failure, gives the Telephone Company the privilege to discontinue the furnishing of service.

In the event of a conflict between any rate, rule, regulation or provision contained within this tariff and any rule or statutes of the Missouri Public Service Commission, the rule or statutes of the Missouri Public Service Commission shall prevail.

Services contained in this tariff will be provided as a combination of facilities based, resale of services only, and leasing of unbundled local loops from the Incumbent Local Exchange Carrier (ILEC).

Except as noted otherwise, this tariff applies to all exchanges of the Company, and it applies to both residential and business services.

The exchanges served by Fidelity Communication Services II, Inc. are as follows:

Bourbon
Cuba
St. James
Belle
Bland
Safe

(N)

The Company concurs in the exchange boundary maps for the exchanges listed above as filed by the incumbent local exchange company in tariffs approved by the Commission.

LOCAL EXCHANGE TARIFF CONCURRENCE

REC'D NOV 13 2000

A. Local Exchange Tariff Concurrence

Local exchange services are those services which are described in the Local Exchange Tariff of Fidelity Communication Services I, Inc., PSC Mo. No. 1. These services are offered by the Company to local exchange customers in accordance with the rules and regulations specified in the Local Exchange Tariff of Fidelity Communication Services I, Inc., PSC Mo. NO. 1 except for those items listed in section 5.D. as exceptions and approved by the Missouri Public Service Commission, and in any amendments thereto and authorized by the Missouri Public Service Commission or applicable law. The Company also concurs in the rates of Fidelity Communication Services I, Inc., PSC Mo. No. 1 except for those rates listed in section 5.E. as exceptions and approved by the Missouri Public Service Commission.

B. Provision of Services

The Company, to the extent that such services are or can be made available with reasonable effort will provide to a local exchange customer, upon reasonable notice, services of the type offered in Fidelity Communication Services I, Inc. Tariff pursuant to the terms and conditions specified therein, except for those items listed in Section 5.D. and 5.E. as exceptions.

C. Cancellation Rights

The Company reserves the right to cancel and make void the above concurrence statement, subject to requirements as may be ordered by the Missouri Public Service Commission, at any and such time as it appears that such cancellation is in the best interest of the Company and/or its customers.

DIRECTORY LISTINGS

Missouri Public
Service Commission

REC'D NOV 13 2000

A. General

- 1. One Directory listing is furnished without charge to each customer in conformity to the Company's practices with respect to its directories. Listings are intended primarily for the purpose of identification and are limited to information which is essential to such identification. Directories are furnished only as an aid to the use of the telephone service facilities and the Company reserves the right to refuse to insert any listing in its directories which does not facilitate telephone service.

B. Conditions

- 1. A Primary Listing is furnished as part of and in the rates for telephone service. The Primary Listing may include the name, address and telephone number of:
 - a. The individual, organization, firm or corporation contracting for the service.
 - b. A residential Primary listing may consist of a dual name listing whereby two individuals with the same surname who reside at the same address may both be listed with no more than two given names. Each given name for the purposes of this Tariff is defined as any combination, not to exceed two, of the following:
 - 1) First name
 - 2) Middle name
 - 3) Initial
 - 4) Nickname
 - 5) Maiden name
 - c. A Duplicate Listing reversing the order of the individuals' given names above may be provided at the rates for Additional Listings.
 - d. When two or more lines serve a customer in a group arranged for a "hunting" operator, each group of lines is considered one telephone number and is entitled to only one Primary Listing

B. Conditions – (Continued)

2. An Additional Listing may also include the same address and telephone number as the Primary Listing, except that a different address may be shown for off-premises stations located on other premises occupied solely by the customer.
 - a. Additional Listings may be furnished with business or residence service for persons who occupy the same premises.
3. An Alternative Listing (charged as an Additional Listing) refers a calling party to certain other telephone numbers after business hours or on Sundays or holidays, or if there is no answer on the first listed number.
 - a. Where the alternative call number is to be that of another customer, the listing will be furnished only with written approval of the other customer.
4. Cross-Reference Listings (charged as an Additional Listing) enable a customer to use a former listing to refer customers to his new listing appearing elsewhere in the directory. Cross-Reference Listings do not include an address or telephone number and are permitted when, in the opinion of the Company, they are necessary for the proper identification of the customer, and are not desired to secure a preferential position in the directory or for advertising purposes.
 - a. As an aid to the service, Cross-Reference Listings may be provided without charge in connection with the service of federal, state or municipal government agencies.
5. A Foreign Listing is a listing in any directory for which the customer does not have local service. The rate for a Foreign Listing will be the rate listed in the Tariff.
6. Line of Information (charged as an Additional Listing) is listed information in addition to a primary or extra listing that is intended to supply additional or special instructions to the calling parties, e.g., office hours.

REC'D NOV 13 2000

7. Nonpublished Service is the omission of a customer's listing from both the telephone directory and Directory Assistance records.
 - a. When Nonpublished Service is to be furnished, the customer will hold the Company harmless from any damages which might arise, and will absolve the Company from any responsibility for the failure of the customer to receive calls because of the nonpublished listing.
 - b. The rate for a Nonpublished Service is specified in this Tariff.
 - c. The charge will not apply to nonpublished number for customers having other listed services.
8. Nonlisted Service is the omission of a customer's listing from the telephone directory only. It may be obtained from the Directory Assistance Operator.
9. Service Charges apply to change listed directory service to Nonpublished Service or Nonlisted Service. Service Charges DO NOT apply to change from Nonpublished Service or Nonlisted Service to listed Primary Listing service.
10. The charge for Directory listings begins on the day the Directory Assistance records are posted.
11. The length of contract period is from the day on which the directory is published to the day the succeeding directory is published. Unless the listing no longer serves the customer because of disconnection, removal, etc., of the service, the minimum contract period will be at least 30 days.
12. Listings will be limited to such information as is necessary for proper identification.
13. The length of a listing may be limited by the use of abbreviations where the clarity of the listing and the identification of the customer will not be impaired.
