LIFELINE AND DISABLED PROGRAMS+

A. General Regulations

1. Lifeline and Disabled service is a discounted voice telephony service available to qualifying residential subscribers.+
2. The monthly discount will be the maximum amount allowed by the Missouri Public Service Commission and the Federal Communications Commission; however, this discount will not exceed the sum of the federal subscriber line charge and the recurring charges for voice telephony service. The monthly discount will be the same for Lifeline and Disabled customers solely subscribing to voice telephony service and for Lifeline and Disabled customers subscribing to a bundle of services.+
3. A Lifeline or Disabled subscriber's voice telephony service will not be disconnected for non-payment of charges unless the subscriber fails to pay charges directly related to voice telephony service.+
4. Lifeline service is available with optional toll blocking or toll limitation service restricting access to 1+, 0+, and 0- dialed calls at no charge.
5. Participants are limited to one program benefit per household. Subscribers cannot receive additional discounts for service from another provider. Subscribers may not receive discounts from both the Lifeline and Disabled programs.+

‡MISSOURI SCHOOL DISCOUNT PROGRAM

1. A discount from standard monthly rates for local exchange business service may be allowed in connection with service furnished through the Missouri School Discount Program, pursuant to the Video Instructional Development and Educational Opportunity Program, as enacted by the Missouri State Legislature.
2. Upon the customer's request, a discount of twenty percent (20%) from standard monthly access line rates may be allowed to educational institutions within the Company's certified area, as determined by Paragraph 3, following.
3. An educational institution shall be defined either as an accredited public school, or a private school which is tax exempt pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3). Persons operating home schools, as defined in 167.031 RSMo, shall not be eligible for this school discount program. Public Schools must be accredited by the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education for the State of Missouri and /or the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
4. The qualifying discount will be permitted only on the local exchange access line. All other features, ancillary services or options, relative to the particular service, shall continue to be billed at the appropriate tariffed rates.
5. The qualifying discount will be permitted only where the predominant use is providing educational and instructional programs and for the educational institutions administrative use. The discount is not allowed to residential complexes associated with the institution.
6. In addition to meeting the qualification specified in Paragraph 3 preceding, an eligible customer must sign an affidavit certifying that the qualification is met. The affidavit will be retained on file with the Company.
7. The customer should request to receive the discount on all subsequent additions of eligible services which are ordered. There will be no additional affidavits required.
8. The following local exchange services are eligible for a discount under this program:

Flat Rate, business one-party service.

Commission

1. Application of Regulations

- A. The regulations set forth herein apply to intrastate services and facilities furnished within the state of Missouri by Mid-Missouri Telephone Company hereinafter referred to as the Company, subject to the jurisdiction of the Missouri Public Service Commission.
- B. When services and facilities are provided in part by the Company and in part by other companies, the regulations of the Company apply to that portion of the service or facilities furnished by it.

2. Undertaking of the Company

- A. The Company does not undertake to transmit messages, but offers the use of its facilities, where available, for communication between parties subject to the terms and conditions specified in these tariffs.

3. Applications for Services

- A. Applications for service may be made orally or in writing.
- B. Any change in rates or regulations prescribed by the Missouri Public Service Commission modifies the terms and regulations of contracts to the extent of such change.

4. Application of Business Rates

- A. Business rates apply in offices, stores, factories, and all other places of a strictly business nature.
- B. In boarding houses (except as noted under 5.B.) offices of hotels and offices of apartment buildings, quarters occupied by clubs or lodges, public, private, or parochial schools, or colleges, hospitals, libraries, churches, college fraternity houses, and other similar institutions (but excluding dormitory rooms at such schools or colleges).

JAN 23 1977

- C. At residence locations when the customer has no regular business telephone and the use of the service either by himself; members of his household, or his guests, or parties calling him can be considered as more of a business than of a residence nature, which fact might be indicated by advertising, either by business cards, newspapers, hand bills, billboards, circulars, motion picture screens, or other advertising matter, such as on vehicles, etc., or when such business use is not such as commonly arises and passes over to residence telephones during the intervals when, in compliance with the law or established custom, business places are ordinarily closed.
- D. Where the place of business and residence of a customer are in the same premises and no telephone is installed in the place of business, the business rate shall be charged for the telephone installed in the residence.
- E. At residence locations, when an extension station or extension bell is located in a shop, office, or other place of business.
- F. At any location where the listing of service at that location indicates a business, trade or profession, except as specified below.

5. Application of Residence Rates

- A. Residence rates apply in private residences where business alphabetical or classified telephone directory listings are not provided.
- B. In private apartments of hotels, rooming houses, or boarding houses where service is confined to the customer's use, and elsewhere in rooming houses which are not advertised as a place of business or which have less than five rooms for roomers or which furnish meals to less than ten boarders, provided business telephone directory listings are not furnished.

+8. Deposits and Guarantees of Payment - Residence Service

- A. The Company may require a deposit or guarantee as a condition of service if the customer or prospective customer:
 - 1. Is unable to establish that he or she had a previous service account with a telephone utility for a period of at least twelve (12) months for which all undisputed charges were satisfactorily paid.
 - 2. Is unable to establish a credit rating under standards contained in tariffs of the Company which shall be filed with and approved by the commission, provided that this subparagraph (2) shall only be applicable if a customer or prospective customer would otherwise be required to post a deposit or guarantee under subparagraph (1).
- B. The Company may require a deposit or guarantee as a condition of continued service if under any of the following circumstances:
 - 1. The customer has undisputed charges in two out of the last twelve (12) billing periods which have become delinquent. A telephone utility shall with respect to each customer maintain a record of all charges which have become delinquent within the last twelve (12) billing periods.
 - 2. The customer has had service discontinued for nonpayment at any time during the preceding twelve (12) billing periods.
 - 3. The customer established service with the telephone utility within the preceding six (6) months, and incurs toll or other charges in any one (1) billing period which are equal to at least 400 percent of the amount of the deposit or guarantee previously required by the telephone utility.

3. By means of a cash deposit.

B. The Company shall be the sole judge as to whether or not the references or guarantee in writing are acceptable.

8. Deposits or Guarantee

A. A deposit or guarantee may be required for the purpose of establishing service if the customer or prospective customer has an unpaid and undisputed delinquent account with a telephone utility which accrued within the last two (2) years or if such a delinquent account was paid within the last six (6) months.

As a condition of continued service to an existing customer, a deposit or guarantee may be required if undisputed charges in two (2) out of the last twelve (12) billing periods became delinquent.

The deposit or guarantee shall not exceed estimated charges for two (2) months service based on the average bill during the preceding twelve (12) months or estimated for the next twelve (12) months by the customer and the company.

Concurrent with the establishment of service, a customer may post a deposit in two (2) equal monthly installments or as otherwise agreed upon.

3. By means of a cash deposit.

B. The Company shall be the sole judge as to whether or not the references or guarantee in writing are acceptable.

8. Deposits

A. A deposit may be required for the purpose of establishing a customer's credit but shall not exceed his estimated bill for exchange service and toll charges for one normal billing period plus thirty days. The Company may require the customer to increase the amount of the deposit at any time if, in its opinion, the charges billed against the customer are found to warrant such an increase.

B. Deposit not to affect regular collection practices.

The fact that a deposit has been made shall in no way relieve the applicant or customer from complying with the Company's regulations as to advance payments and the prompt payment of bills on presentation, nor constitute a waiver or modification of the regular practices of the Company providing for the discontinuance of service for non-payment of any sums due the Company for services rendered. The Company may discontinue service to any customer failing to pay current bills without regard to the fact that such customer has made a deposit with the Company to secure payment of such bills or has furnished the Company with a guarantee in writing of such bills.

+A. A customer shall have at least twenty-one (21) days from the rendition of a bill to pay charges as stated except when the customer has had service discontinued because of non payment within the last twelve (12) months, or where the customer incurs toll or other charges at any time during the billing period which are equal to at least 400 percent of the amount of the deposit or guarantee previously required from the customer, in which case payment may be demanded for the toll charges (in less than twenty-one (21) days) by a telephone call to the customer followed by written notification of such demand sent by First Class Mail. If the toll charges remain unpaid for ten (10) days from rendition of written notification or a mutually established late payment arrangement date after such demand, whichever is less or twenty-one (21) days from rendition of the bill, such charges will be deemed delinquent.

Service may be discontinued because of non payment of delinquent charges after the customer had been given five (5) days notice by means of a written notice sent by First Class Mail. Service shall not be discontinued because of non payment of a disputed item on the customers bill.

Service shall not be discontinued on a day when the offices of the Company are not open to facilitate re-connection of service, or on a day immediately preceding such day.

At least twenty-four (24) hours preceding a discontinuance the Company shall make reasonable efforts to contact customer to advise them of the proposed discontinuance and the steps the

Interest at the rate of not less than 6% per annum shall be paid by the Company on all deposits made for the purpose of establishing credit. Simple interest shall be computed from the date of payment of the deposit and shall be paid annually or at the time of discontinuance of service or withdrawal of the deposit.

Upon satisfactory payment of all undisputed charges during the last twelve (12) billing periods, the deposit shall with accrued interest be promptly credited against charges stated on subsequent bills. Payment of a charge is satisfactory if received prior to the date upon which the charge becomes delinquent provided it is not in dispute. The Company may withhold refund of a deposit pending the resolution of a dispute with respect to charges secured by the deposit.

Simple interest shall be computed from the date of payment of the deposit and shall be paid annually or at the time of discontinuance of service or withdrawal of the deposit.

9. Discontinuance of Service for Failure to Maintain Credit

Service may be discontinued for failure to maintain credit, as specified above, five days after the Company has served or mailed notice requiring the customer to do so.

10. Restoral of Service after Discontinuance

Where service has been discontinued for failure to maintain credit as specified above, the restoral of service charge will be made and collected by the Company.

11. Provision of Equipment

- A. All equipment necessary for the provision of a given service will be furnished and owned by the Company except as provided elsewhere in this Tariff. The customer may be required to provide suitable housing or other protective measures where equipment is to be installed in locations exposed to weather or other hazards. Commercial power will be furnished by the customer at a suitable outlet when and where required.
- B. No equipment, apparatus, circuit, or device not furnished by the Company shall be attached to or connected with the facilities furnished by the Company, whether physically, by induction, accoustically, or otherwise, except as provided in this Tariff, or otherwise authorized in writing by the Company. In case such unauthorized attachment or connection is made, the Company shall have the right to remove or disconnect the same, or to terminate the service.
