RE: Notice of Orchard Farm Telephone Company d/b/a MissouriCom to Partially Detariff Pursuant to Section 392.461, RSMo. and 20 CSR 4240-28.013(1)

Dear Judge Woodruff:

Section 392.461, RSMo. allows telecommunications companies, upon notice to the Commission, to elect to be partially exempt from the requirement that they offer retail services to residential or business end users through tariff, and to withdraw such tariffs. Orchard Farm Telephone Company d/b/a MissouriCom hereby provides notice of its election to detariff rates, terms and conditions for deposits and guarantees of payment; non-recurring service fees; late payment fees; credit/debit card payment fees; and returned (NSF) check charge effective December 1, 2021. The following revised tariff sheet revises and updates the Company's concurrence in the Stoutland Telephone Company tariff:

P.S.C. MO. No. 7, Section 6, 1st Revised Sheet 1

As a result of this concurrence, Orchard Farm Telephone Company is detariffing the rates, terms and conditions for the services identified in Stoutland Telephone Company's revised tariff filing that is being made today with the Commission.

The information and rates for the services being detariffed will be located at this web site:
<https://missouricom.co/tariff-charges/>.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

BRYDON SWEARENGEN & ENGLAND P.C.
