SECTION 3.0 DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES (CONT'D.)

3.34 Operator Services (Cont'd.)

3.34.1 Operator Services Calling Options

- A. Operator Station-to-Station - Operator Station-to-Station calls may be placed when a caller requests operator assistance in reaching a telephone number and will speak with any individual at the called station rather than a specified party. Customers may use one of the dialing sequences provided in 3.34 above to access an operator for Operator Station-to-Station calls. The billing options listed in Section 3.34.2 below may be used for Operator Station-to-Station calls.
- B. Person-to-Person - Person-to-Person calls may be placed when the calling party requests operator assistance in reaching specific person, department, extension, office, etc. at a specified telephone number. The operator dials the destination telephone number and remains on the line until the requested party or other caller-accepted alternative is reached and conversation begins. Customers may use one of the dialing sequences provided in 3.34 above to access an operator for Person-to-Person calls. The billing options listed in Section 3.34.2 below may be used for Person-to-Person calls.
