TARIFF FORMAT

REC'D DEC 06 2000

- A. Sheet Numbering - Sheet numbers appear in the upper right corner of the page. Sheets are numbered sequentially. However, new sheets are occasionally added to the Tariff. When a new sheet is added between sheets already in effect, a decimal is added. For example, a new sheet added between sheets 14 and 15 would be 14.1.
- B. Sheet Revision Numbers - Revision numbers also appear in the upper right corner of each page. These numbers are used to determine the most current sheet version on file with the P.S.C. For example, the 4th revised Sheet cancels the 3rd revised Sheet 14. Because of various suspension periods, deferrals, etc. the P.S.C. follows in their Tariff approval process, the most current sheet number on file with the P.S.C. is not always the Tariff page in effect.
- C. Paragraph Numbering Sequence - There are levels of alphanumeric coding. Each level of coding is subservient to its next higher level. The following is an example of the numbering sequence suggested for use in Tariffs.

- 2.1
- 2.1.A
- 2.1.A.1
- 2.1.A.1.a

When Call Trace successfully identifies a calling number, a recording instructs the customer to call a toll free number, which will activate a Voice Response Script and assist the customer in establishing an open file. Should the customer decided to prosecute the call originating party, the customer should contact the Company for further instructions.

Activation of Call Trace never authorizes the Company to provide the called party with the name or telephone number of the calling party. In the event that Call Trace is not available or is unable to resolve the case, it may be necessary to place a manual trap on the customer's telephone line.

D. Lifeline Service

1. Lifeline Service is a unique class of telephone service provided to an applicant which is designed to meet basic residential communications needs for emergency calls and for the maintenance of necessary social contacts.
2. Lifeline service includes: single party service; voice grade access to the public switched telephone network; DTMF or its functional equivalent; access to emergency services; access to operator services; access to interexchange service; and access to directory assistance. The purpose of this offering is to maintain and preserve universal service.

Lifeline Service applicants are those certified by the department of social services as economically disadvantaged by participation in Medicaid, Food Stamps, Supplementary Security Income (SSI), federal public housing assistance or Section 8, or Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHAP), or income qualified as found in Missouri State Statute 660.105. The department of social services shall inform such persons how to apply for Lifeline Service. Pursuant to the FCC's Final Report and Order in Case No. CC 96-45. The customer requesting Lifeline Service must provide to the Company a signed document, certifying under penalty of perjury, that he or she is receiving benefits from one of the programs specified, identifying the program or programs from which he or she is receiving benefits, and agreeing to notify the Company when they no longer participate in the program or programs.
