3. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

JAN 24 1991

3.1 Definitions

MISSOURI

Certain terms used in this tariff are defined below Public Service Commission

Carrier

The term "Carrier" means Hillsboro Telephone Co., Inc.

Commercial Service

The phrase "Commercial Service" means telecommunications services provided to a customer for use primarily or substantially of a business, professional, institutional or other occupational nature.

Day

The term "Day" means 8:00 AM to, but not including, 5:00 PM local time at the originating city on Monday through Friday excluding Carrier-specified holidays.

Evening

The term "Evening" means 5:00 PM to but not including 11:00 PM, local time at the originating city on Sunday through Friday and anytime on Carrier-specified holidays except when a lower rate would normally apply.

Exchange Area

A geographically defined area wherein the telephone industry, through the use of maps or legal descriptions sets out specified areas where individual telephone exchange companies hold themselves out to provide communication services.

Holidays

The term "Holidays" means the following Carrier-specified holidays: New Year's Day, President's Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day.

Local Access Transport Area (LATA)

The phrase "Local Access Transport Area" means a geographical area established by the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia in Civil Action No. 17-049, within which a local exchange company provides communication services.

Night/Weekend

The words "Night/Weekend" mean 11:00 PM to but not including 8:00 AM local time in the originating city, anytime on Saturday, and all day Sunday except 5:00 PM to but not including 11:00 PM.

Normal Work Hours

The phrase "Normal Work Hours" means that time after 8:00 AM and before 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday excluding holidays.

Regular Billing

The words "Regular Billing" mean a standard bill sent in the normal Carrier billing cycle. This billing consists of one bill for each account assigned to a subscriber.

Subscriber

The term "Subscriber" means the person, firm, company, corporation or other entity which contracts for service under this tariff and is responsible for the payment of charges as well as compliance with Carrier's regulations pursuant to this tariff.

Switch

The term "Switch" means an electronic device which is used to provide circuit routing and control.

3.2 Responsibilities of the Carrier

(a) The service provided consists of the use of facilities made available by Carrier for telephone communication between different exchange areas. The Carrier does not undertake to accept, transmit or deliver messages. The service provided does not include person-to-person, collect, conference or other communication links requiring operator assistance.

(b) Carrier is a reseller of long distance services. Carrier leases WATS lines, central office lines, and other facilities from other telephone companies and offers to sell to subscribers the right to use those facilities on an as needed basis. The service provided by Carrier is non-exclusive. Carrier's customers can and do have access to other long distance carriers.

(c) The obligation of Carrier to provide service is dependent upon its ability to procure facilities which are required to meet the subscriber's order for service. Carrier will make reasonable efforts to secure the necessary facilities as provided for in these tariffs.

3.3 Liability of Carrier

Public Service Commission

(a) Because the subscriber has the exclusive control of his communications over the facilities provided to him by Carrier, and because of the inability to provide error-free service over the telecommunication facilities provided, the services provided are subject to the terms and conditions contained in these tariffs..

(b) The subscriber assumes all risks for damages arising out of mistakes, omissions, interruptions, delays, errors, or defects in transmission or from failure or defects in equipment and facilities furnished by Carrier occurring in the course of providing service.

(c) If service is interrupted or the subscriber receives a poor connection on a call, other than as a result of negligence or willful act of the subscriber, an allowance or credit in the amount that would normally be charged for the call will be given to the subscriber. In order to be entitled to such a credit or allowance, the subscriber shall notify Carrier of the disconnect or poor connection with the current billing period for the call.

(d) The liability of Carrier for damages arising out of mistakes, omissions, interruptions, delays or errors of defects in transmission occurring in the course of furnishing service and not caused by negligence of the customer shall in no event exceed an amount equivalent to the proportional charge to the customer for the period of service during which such mistakes, omissions, interruptions, delays, or defects in transmission occur.

(e) Carrier shall be indemnified and held harmless by the subscriber against any and all claims for libel, slander or copyright infringement arising directly or indirectly from the material transmitted over the facilities of Carrier or the use of same by subscriber, and also against claims for patent infringement arising from combining with, or using in connection with, facilities furnished by Carrier and apparatus, equipment and systems provided by the subscriber, and against all other claims arising out of any act or omission of the subscriber in connection with the services and facilities provided by Carrier.

3.4 Use of Service by the Subscriber

MISSOURI

(a) The service is provided for the use by the subscriber and may be used by others when so authorized by the subscriber, providing that all such usage shall be subject to the provisions of Carrier's filed tariffs.

(b) Service is furnished subject to the condition that there will be no abuse or fraudulent use of the service.

Abuse of fraudulent use of service includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) The use of unduly profane or unduly obscene language in communications over Carrier's facilities.

(2) A call or calls, anonymous or otherwise, if made in a manner which could reasonably be expected to frighten, abuse, torment or harass another.

(3) For any unlawful purpose.

(4) Use of service in any manner that would violate any rule or regulation on contract provision regulating the relationship between Carrier and those who supply the facilities that Carrier makes available to its subscribers.

(5) The use of service or facilities of the Carrier to transmit a message or to locate a person or otherwise to give or obtain information on without payment of the charge applicable for service.

(6) The obtaining, or attempting to obtain or assisting another to obtain or to attempt to obtain service by rearranging, tampering with or making connection with any facilities of the Carrier, or by any trick, scheme, false representation or false credit device, or by or through any other fraudulent means or device whatsoever with intent to avoid the payment, in whole or in part, of the regular charge for such service.

(7) The use of the service in such manner as to interfere unreasonably with the use of the service by one or more other customers.

3.5 Application for Service

MISSOURI
Public Service Commission

(a) Applications for service may be made orally or in writing. These applications become contracts upon the establishment of service.

(b) Any change in rates or regulations prescribed by the Missouri Public Service Commission modifies the terms and regulations of contracts to the extent of such change.

(c) Carrier may require any subscriber to sign an application form furnished by Carrier and to establish credit as provided in these rules, as a condition precedent to the initial establishment of service. Carrier's acceptance of an order for service to an applicant whose credit has not been established may be subject to the provisions of these tariffs relating to the establishment of credit.

3.6 Advance Payments

At the time an application for service is made, an applicant may be required to pay an amount equal to at least one month's service and/or service connection charges, which may be applicable. The amount of the first month's service is credited to the customer's account on the first bill rendered.

3.7 Billing and Payment of Charges

(a) Unless a subscriber's bill has a zero balance, he will receive a bill each month. Fixed charges will be billed in advance. Toll charges will be billed in arrears. Special billing arrangements may be provided for service to governmental agencies.

(b) A subscriber is responsible for all charges in conjunction with the use of his authorized access number and for all charges for service provided to him by Carrier.

(c) Bills are due 22 days from date of rendering and may be paid at any business office of the Carrier or at any agency authorized by Carrier to receive payment.

(d) For billing of any fixed charges, service is considered to be established on the day that Carrier

(e) Payment of commercial bills is due upon receipt. Payment of residential bills is due as provided in the Public Service Commission's billing practices rule. Subscriber will be billed for all usage beginning immediately upon access to service. For the purpose of computing charges, a month is considered to consist of thirty (30) days.

(f) Subscribers billed by local exchange telephone companies on behalf of Carriers are responsible for any late payment charges that the local exchange telephone company may employ in its billing process.

3.8 Establishment and Furnishing Service - Commercial Only

3.8.1 Deposits

(a) Each commercial applicant for service may be required to establish credit. Any applicant whose credit has not been duly established may be required to make a deposit to be held as a guarantee of payment of charges at the time of application. In addition, an existing commercial subscriber may be required to make a deposit or increase a deposit presently held.

(b) A deposit will not exceed the estimated charges for two (2) months' service plus installation. It will be returned:

- (1) When an application for service has been cancelled prior to the establishment of service. The deposit will be applied to any charges applicable in accordance with the tariff and the excess portion of the deposit will be returned.
- (2) At the end of six (6) months of satisfactory credit history, or

(3) Upon the discontinuance of service. Carrier will refund the subscriber's deposit or the balance in excess of unpaid bills for the service.

(c) The fact that a deposit has been made in no way relieves the subscriber from complying with the regulations with respect to the prompt payment of bills upon presentation.

(e) In lieu of a deposit, Carrier may accept a written guarantee. The limit of the guarantee will not exceed the amount of a cash deposit.

(f) A guarantor will be released upon satisfactory payment of all undisputed charges during the last twelve billing periods. Payment of charges is satisfactory if received prior to the date upon which the charge becomes delinquent provided it is not in dispute.

.2 Cancellation of Service

(a) Carrier, by mailing a notice to the subscriber (5) days before the date of cancellation by first class mail, may cancel the application for service without incurring any liability to the subscriber for any of the following reasons:

(1) Non-payment of any sum due to Carrier for service for more than thirty (30) days beyond the date of rendition of the bill for such service; or

(2) A violation of or failure to comply with any regulation governing the furnishing of service; or

(3) An order of a court or other government authority having jurisdiction which prohibits Carrier from furnishing service; or

(4) Failure to post a required deposit or guarantee; or

(5) Material misrepresentation of identity in obtaining service or the use of service in a manner that in the opinion of Carrier constitutes fraud or abuse; or

(6) Incurring charges not covered by a deposit or guarantee and evidencing an intent not to pay such charges when due.

.2 Deposits and Guarantees

(a) Carrier may require an applicant for service to post a deposit if:

(1) The applicant is unable to establish that he had a previous account with a telephone utility for a period of at least twelve (12) months for which all undisputed charges were satisfactorily paid; or

(2) The applicant has not previously had telephone service for a twelve (12) month period and does not meet at least two of the following criteria:

- (i) Home ownership, excluding mobile homes
- (ii) Vehicle ownership - car or truck
- (iii) Is fifty or more years of age
- (iv) Has been employed two years or more with current employer
- (v) Has an existing loan from a financial institution not considered delinquent by the creditor.

(b) A present subscriber may be required to post a deposit or guarantee as a condition of continued service if undisputed charges in two out of the last twelve billing periods have become delinquent or the subscriber has had service discontinued for non-payment.

- (8) Upon written objection to the furnishing of a service made in writing by or on behalf of any government agency acting within its jurisdiction on the grounds that such service is, or will be, used for an illegal purpose.

3.10 Interruption of Service

It shall be the obligation of the subscriber to notify Carrier of any interruption in service or of any poor connections or disconnects. Credits will be given for disconnected calls of calls where poor connections obstruct communication.

3.11 Mileage

Mileage used in these tariffs is calculated based on V and H coordinates as obtained by reference to AT&T tariff FCC No. 10.

Method of Calculation

The airline mileage between two carrier service locations is calculated as follows:

$$\text{Mileage} = \frac{\sqrt{(V1 - V2)^2 + (H1 - H2)^2}}{10}$$

where V1 and H1 are the V and H coordinates of point 1 and V2 and H2 are the coordinates of point 2.

The mileage is rounded up to an integer value to determine the airline mileage.

3.12 Service Hours

Service is available twenty four (24) hours a day seven (7) days a week. Rate periods are applicable as
