- A. Sheet Numbering - Sheet numbers appear in the upper right corner of the page. Sheets are numbered sequentially. However, new pages are occasionally added to the tariff. When a new page is added between pages already in effect, a decimal is added. For example, a new page added between pages 14 and 15 would 14.1.
- B. Sheet Revision Numbers - Revision numbers also appear in the upper right corner of each page. These numbers are used to determine the most current page version on file with the PSC. For example, the 4th revised Sheet 14 cancels the 3rd revised Sheet 14. Because of various suspension periods, deferrals, etc. the PSC follows in their tariff approval process, the most current page number on file with the Commission is not always the tariff page in effect. Consult the Check Sheet currently in effect.
- C. Paragraph Numbering Sequence - There are five levels of paragraph coding. Each level of coding is subservient to its next higher level:
 - 2.1
 - 2.1.1
 - 2.1.1 (A)
 - 2.1.1 (A) .1
- D. Check Sheets - When a tariff filing is made with the PSC, an updated check sheet accompanies the tariff filing. The check sheet lists the pages contained in the tariff, with a cross reference to the current revision number. When new pages are added, the check sheet is changed to reflect the revision. All revisions made in a given filing are designated by an asterisk (*). There will be no other symbols used on this page if these are the only changes made to it (i.e., the format, etc. remains the same, just revised revision levels on some pages). The tariff user should refer to the latest check sheet to find out if a particular page is the most current on file with the PSC.

Each rate center or POP has a unique set of assigned vertical and horizontal (V&H) coordinates which are used by the Underlying Carrier for calculating mileage. Calculation of mileage is in accordance with the V&H coordinate system.

2.16.2 Operator Toll Assistance

Rates for service between points are based on airline mileage between rate centers of the calling and called stations.

2.16.3 Other Mileage Sensitive Services

The distance is measured using the V&H coordinates associated with either the rate centers of the originating and terminating stations or the V&H coordinates associated with the originating and terminating POP of the underlying carrier. The type of access determines which V&H coordinates are used.

If a call is originated or terminated via switched access, the distance is measured using the V&H coordinates associated with the rate centers of the originating or terminating station. 2.18 Determining Rate In Effect

2.18.1 General

For outbound services that are time-of-day sensitive, the time-of-day at the central office or POP associated with the calling station determines the rate in effect. For inbound services that are time-of-day sensitive, the time-of-day at the central office or POP associated with the called station determines the rate in effect.

2.18.2 Operator Toll Assistance

The time at the beginning of each minute of connection determines the applicable rate period. When a message spans more than one rate period, total charges for the minutes in each rate period are calculated and the results for each rate period are totaled to obtain the total message charge.

2.18.3 All Other Calls Originating Via Switched Access

Calls originating in one time period and terminating in another time period will be billed according to the rates in effect during the time period in which the call originates.
