19. Customer Service – Use of

- A. Customer telephone service, as distinguished from public and semi-public telephone service, is furnished only for use by the customer, his family, employees or business associates, or persons residing in the customer's household. The Company has the right to refuse to install customer service or to permit such service to remain on premises of a public or semi-public character when the station is so located that the public in general, or patrons of the customer may make use of the service. At such locations, however, customer service may be installed, provided the instrument is so located that it is not accessible for public use.
