1.2 GENERAL REGULATIONS

REC'D JUN 26 2000

1.2.1 Scope

- A. Message Telecommunications Service (MTS) is the furnishing of those service components required for telecommunications between service points in different local service areas in accordance with the regulations and system of charges specified in this Tariff. The message charges specified in this Tariff are in payment for Message Telecommunications Services furnished between the calling and called service points.
- B. The charges specified in this Tariff do not contemplate work being performed by the Company employees involved at a time when overtime wages apply due to the request of the customer, nor do they contemplate work once begun being interrupted by the customer.
- C. The Company does not undertake to transmit messages but furnishes the use of its services to its customers for telecommunications.

1.2.2 Availability of Services

- A. In case a shortage of service components exists at any time, either for temporary or protracted periods, the establishment of Message Telecommunications Service shall take precedence over all others.
- B. Service is furnished subject to the availability of the service components required. The Company will (1) determine which of those components shall be used and (2) make modifications to those components at its option.
- C. At the option of the Company, Billed Number Screening will be furnished to control instances of fraud associated with billed-to-third party, station-to-station or person-to-person collect messages or in response to a customer's request.
- D. The furnishing of WATS under this tariff will require physical arrangements of the services of the Company and is, therefore, subject to the availability of such services. Services shall include, but not be limited to, the existence of access and/or billing arrangements on an originating and/or terminating basis. In the absence of access arrangement between the Company and the access provider at a particular station, a customer may be unable to receive calls at or from the affected location.

1.2.3 Limitations on Duration of Connections

The Company reserves the right to limit the duration of connection when necessary because of a shortage of service components caused by emergency conditions.

1.2.4 Liability

- A. In view of the fact that the customer has exclusive control of his communications over the services furnished him by the Company and of the other uses for which services may be furnished him by the Company and because of unavailability of errors incident to the services and to the use of such services of the Company, the services furnished by the Company are subject to the terms, conditions and limitations herein specified.

1.2.14 Credit Limits

Where AT&T provides the billing function for residential long distance services, AT&T may establish credit limits for new and existing customers based on credit scores assigned by commercial credit reporting agencies or based on the customer's payment history. Where a credit limit is established for a customer, the customer will be notified of his/her initial credit limit amount and any subsequent credit limit changes. Customers will be notified at least 5 days in advance of any credit limits that are placed in effect. In the event that the established credit limit is exceeded on the customer's billing account, access to AT&T's long distance services including 1+, 0+ and all 900/976/700/500 calls will be restricted where facilities are available. Access to local calling, operator assisted calls, emergency services (9-1-1), 800, 888 will not be affected by this restriction. Customers attempting to access restricted services will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoral.

1.2.14 Credit Limits

(AT)

Where AT&T provides the billing function for residence long distance services, AT&T may establish credit limits for new and existing customers based on credit scores assigned by commercial credit reporting agencies or based on the customer's payment history. Customers will be notified of their initial credit limit amount and subsequent credit limit changes through notices mailed to the customer. In the event that the established credit limit is exceeded on an account, access to AT&T's long distance services including 1+, 0+ and all 900/976/700 calls will be restricted where facilities are available. Access to local calling, emergency services (9-1-1), 800, 888 will not be affected by this restriction. Customers attempting to access restricted services will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoral.

MO. PUBLIC SERVICE COMM

In the event a customer has not reached their initially established credit limit, but has become delinquent in their payments, AT&T may place a restriction on continued use of AT&T long distance services including 1+, 0+ and all 900/976/700 calls until the customer is able to make satisfactory arrangements with the Company. This restriction may be set lower than the customer's initial credit limit due to their delinquent status. Access to local calling, emergency services (9-1-1), 800, 888 will not be affected by this restriction. In the event that access is restricted due to payment delinquencies, customers attempting to access the restricted services will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoral.

1.2.13 Right to Refuse Service for Prior Indebtedness

MAY 2 1996

(AT)

The Company reserves the right to refuse service to any applicant who is found to be indebted to the Company for service(s) previously furnished until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of all such indebtedness. The Company may also refuse to furnish service to any applicant desiring to establish service for a former subscriber of the Company who is indebted for previous service(s) until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of the prior indebtedness. If service is established and it is subsequently determined that either condition above exists, the Company may suspend or terminate such service until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of the prior indebtedness.

- A. The Company or its agent may require an applicant or a present customer to post a deposit not to exceed the estimated amount of the total charges for service and facilities for an average period of two months, such deposit to be held by the Company or its agent as guarantee of payment.
- B. An applicant for service, or a present customer, may satisfy a deposit requirement by providing a Contract of Guaranty in an amount not less than the requested deposit from a present customer acceptable to the Company or its agent. The guaranty contract shall be on a form provided by the Company or its agent which shall include the Company's and/or its agent's right to transfer charges to the limit of the guaranty, from a defaulted bill of the customer, from whom a deposit or a Contract of Guaranty was required, to the guarantor's account or accounts and the further right to suspend the guarantor's service.
- C. The fact that a deposit has been made, or a guaranty provided, shall in no way relieve the customer from complying with the Company's and/or its agent's regulations as to the prompt payment of bills, nor constitute a waiver or modification of the regular practices of the Company or its agent providing for the temporary suspension of service or the termination of the service contract for non-payment of bills.
