My name is Susan Daniels, and I am Corporate Controller for Western Smokehouse Partners ("Customer"), which is a customer of Union Electric Company d/b/a Ameren Missouri ("Ameren Missouri"). As such, I am authorized to execute this affidavit on behalf of Customer and affirm that the statements made herein are true and correct to the best of my information and belief.

Specifically, I affirm that as of the date this Affidavit is executed, Customer continues to meet the following requirements for receipt of incentives under Ameren Missouri's Rider EDI – Economic Development Incentive:

- Customer continues to qualify for economic development incentives from local, regional, or state governmental entities as indicated when it applied for Rider EDI incentives, and that the incentives remain effective and have not been in any manner cancelled or revoked, as indicated in the attached documentation;
- Customer continues to operate as an industrial or commercial facility not accessible by the general public for the purposes of directly selling or providing goods and/or services; and
- Customer certifies it has not transferred load from another location since its application to Ameren Missouri for Rider EDI incentives or its last Affidavit required by tariff, whichever was more recent.

Further, Customer acknowledges that Ameren Missouri may terminate the incentives received under Rider EDI if Customer fails to meet the requirements affirmed above or other terms required by Ameren Missouri's tariff Rider EDI.

My name is Kevin Blansett, and I am Chief Executive Officer for Quaker Window Products Co. d/b/a Quaker Windows and Doors (“Quaker”), which is a customer of Union Electric Company d/b/a Ameren Missouri (“Ameren Missouri”). As such, I am authorized to execute this affidavit on behalf of Quaker and affirm that the statements made herein are true and correct to the best of my information and belief.

Specifically, I affirm that as of the date this Affidavit is executed, Quaker continues to meet the following requirements for receipt of incentives under Ameren Missouri's Rider EDI – Economic Development Incentive:

- Quaker continues to qualify for economic development incentives from local, regional, or state governmental entities as indicated when it applied for Rider EDI incentives, and those incentives remain effective and have not been in any manner cancelled or revoked;
- Quaker’s Eldon facility continues to operate as an industrial or commercial facility not generally accessible by the general public for the purposes of directly selling or providing goods and/or services; and
- Quaker believes that it will meet the requirements of the tariff Rider EDI necessary to qualify for receipt of incentives thereunder; and
- Quaker certifies it has not transferred load from another location since its application to Ameren Missouri for Rider EDI incentives or its last Affidavit required by tariff, whichever was more recent, except to the extent that the following items might be construed as transferring load:
 - Various pieces of equipment have been moved from our Eldon location back to our Freeburg location, or vice versa. I do not believe such changes have significantly affected electrical usage for either location.

Further, Quaker acknowledges that Ameren Missouri may terminate the incentives received under Rider EDI if Quaker fails to meet the requirements affirmed above or other terms required by Ameren Missouri's tariff Rider EDI.
