B. Volume Discount Plan

A Customer who purchases, in a single purchase that qualifies for the Single Purchase Discount described in A. above, AT&T Commercial Prepaid Card Service-Dollar Option Cards that have an aggregate face value of at least $50,000, will be entitled to receive a Volume Discount. That single qualifying purchase shall be referred to as the "Qualifying Purchase". The Volume Discount shall be applied on all subsequent purchases of AT&T Commercial Prepaid Card Service-Dollar Option made by the Customer during the twelve-month period beginning with the Qualifying Purchase (the "Term"). The Volume Discount shall be in lieu of all other discounts, including but not limited to the Single Purchase Discount.

AT&T shall assign the Customer a Customer Account Number. For each order of AT&T Commercial Prepaid Card Service-Dollar Option Cards made by the Customer during the Term (the "Pending Order"), AT&T shall calculate the total dollar value (face amount) of AT&T Commercial Prepaid Card Service-Dollar Option Cards the Customer has made during the Term. In calculating that total, AT&T shall include the face value of the cards being purchased in the Pending Order. Treating that total dollar value as the "Single Purchase Amount", AT&T shall then use the Discount Schedule described above that is in effect at that time to calculate the appropriate discount percentage that will be applied to the Customer's purchase. AT&T shall then apply that discount to the face value of the Customer's Pending Order.

Example: During the Term of the AT&T Commercial Prepaid Card Service-Dollar Option Cards Volume Discount Plan
