Important Information Regarding your Fidelity Communications Cable TV Account:

At Fidelity Communications, we recognize that our HD Cable TV services are your means to being connected to sports, entertainment, news and community information. Programmers such as ESPN/Disney, FOX, NBC Universal, Discovery and Viacom, to name a few, charge Fidelity for the television channels that we deliver to you as a subscriber of our cable service. These programmers dictate what we will pay and what channels will be available in each tier of TV service such as MEGAVIEW. As programming rates continue to rise out of control, Fidelity must pass a portion of these increases on to our TV subscribers.

In January 2017, Fidelity's television rate for our MEGAVIEW tier will be adjusted to $69.99 per month. This adjustment reflects the escalating programming costs charged by local broadcast stations, sports networks and large programming groups. Unfortunately, these conglomerates demanded increases that affected many channels across our lineup, and while we have done our best to keep the increases minimal, we could not avoid an increase altogether.

*Please reference your channel lineup on the backside of this letter.

TV Channel Tier	Price	Price as of January 1, 2017
MEGAVIEW	$62.99	$69.99
