B. Number 5 Fire Reporting System

1. Operation

- a. Individuals reporting fire emergencies dial a listed connector telephone number to activate the system located in the central office. The fire system causes all interconnected firemen's one-party line telephones to ring with a continuous distinctive ringing tone, except those lines which are busy. On busy firemen's lines, a special tone is applied informing such persons of the incoming fire call. When the busy fireman's line is made free, the system begins ringing such stations with continuous ring tone also.
- b. The calling party reports the emergency situation to the first fireman to answer the fire call and then disconnects. Even after a fireman, or firemen, have answered the fire call, the equipment will continue to ring the unanswered firemen's stations with continuous ringing tone until the completion of the equipment timing cycle. During this cycle, normally from six to eight minutes, the firemen are allowed to discuss the situation on an interconnected common talking circuit established by the fire equipment.
- c. Where desired, optional equipment permits any fireman to sound the fire siren by depressing a button at his special telephone instrument. The siren, or other signal, cannot be sounded until after the fire alarm system has been activated by the dialing of the listed fire number.
- d. The maximum capacity of the fire system is twenty (20) interconnected firemen's one-party station lines.

2. Rates and Charges

- a. The monthly rates below are in addition to all applicable monthly charges for exchange services or facilities provided to city fire departments, fire associations, volunteer fire departments, etc., and/or services provided to individual firemen interconnected with such equipment. Rates for exchange services or facilities are specified in this Tariff.

PREPAID LOCAL TELEPHONE SERVICE (PLTS)

(N)

Prepaid Local Telephone Service (PLTS) is a residential payment plan where the customer agrees to pay for service one month in advance. Upon establishment of the PLTS plan, the customer will be billed for one month service. The Company will require payment of these charges prior to establishment of service. Thereafter, the customer will be required to pay one month's service on a monthly basis. Once payment for service is received, one month's service will be provisioned and is non-refundable if the customer cancels service prior to the end of the month. No deposits, non-recurring charges or connection fees apply. This is a prepaid monthly service.

A. PLTS is configured as follows:

1. Voice grade residential flat rate line, or local measured service line, if available.
2. All mandatory services, including extended area service, expanded local calling, etc. (all tariffed charges applicable).
3. Tone Dialing (Tariffed tone dialing/touch tone charges are applicable).
4. Ability to dial 911.
5. Ability to report service problems seven days a week.
6. Ability to dial CenturyTel Customer Service.
7. Primary directory listing (nonpublished/nonlisted available at tariffed charges).
8. Access to Directory Assistance.
9. Toll blocking/usage sensitive services blocking (tariff charges applicable).
10. Call Waiting, Caller ID, and Call Forwarding included.

B. Customers who are unable to pay the required charges to maintain their present service may activate a PLTS plan, but may be required to agree to a repayment plan for their current charges.

C. New customers who do not qualify for service due to a poor credit history may subscribe to PLTS.
