* 13. Meter Failure

Any Company steam meter that records the Customer's usage within three percent of actual usage will be considered suitably accurate for billing purposes. If, due to routine maintenance or customer notification the meter is found to have excessive error, the Company will correct the meter and adjust the customer's bill. The over or under recorded energy will be calculated for no more than the preceding 12 months. This energy will then be billed at the rates that existed at that time. The metering error revenue will be debited or credited to the customer's account. If there is a credit to be made to the customer, it will be made in total the next billing period. If the customer's account is debited, the customer may extend the payments over the same length of time the meter error occurred. In no case will this payment period exceed 12 months.

+ 14. Billing of License, Occupation, Franchise or Other Similar Charges or Taxes

There shall be added to the customer's bill, when applicable, as a separate item, an amount equal to the proportionate part of any license, occupation, franchise, or other similar fee or tax now or hereafter imposed upon the Company by local taxing authorities, whether imposed by ordinance, franchise or otherwise, and which fee or tax is based upon a percentage of the gross receipts, net receipts, revenues from sales of steam service or other service rendered by the Company to the customer.

Charges or taxes herein referred to shall in all instances be billed to customers on the basis of Company rates effective at the time of billing, and on the basis of the tax rate effective at the time billing is made.

15. Late Payment Charge

There shall be a late payment charge of 1.25% on the amount unpaid from any previous billing. The time interval between billings shall not be less than 25 days.

* 16. Line Extensions

Whenever an extension of the Company's distribution system is necessary in order that an applicant may receive service, the Company shall furnish and install the required extension to the applicant, except as hereinafter described.

Rights-of-way and easements required from the applicant or applicants, satisfactory to the utility, must be furnished in reasonable time to meet construction and service requirements and before the utility shall be required to commence its installation. In the case of underground distribution, such rights-of-way and easements must, by applicant or applicants, at no charge to the utility, be cleared of trees, tree stumps and other obstructions and graded to within six inches of final grade. Such clearance and grading must be maintained by the applicant or applicants during construction by the utility.

An applicant will be required to pay any excess investment costs. The excess cost is the total investment cost less two years' expected revenues. In circumstances when the two years' expected revenues are less than the total investment cost, and when the application of these rules appears unjust to either party or discriminatory to other customers, the Company may modify the terms of the service agreement to prevent said unjust or discriminatory treatment.

All costs of the Company referenced in this extension policy shall include applicable material, labor and indirect costs. Indirect costs are comprised of supervision, engineering, transportation, material handling, administrative costs, and payroll related costs that support actual construction. The amount of the indirect costs is derived by application of unit costs or allocation percentages determined from historical experience. A copy of the Company's estimate of the cost of construction, including direct and indirect costs, shall be furnished to the Customer upon request prior to construction.

All construction, installation, maintenance and operation of distribution systems shall be in accordance with applicable codes, orders, rules, or utility specifications.
