GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

2.3 MODIFICATIONS. A service agreement shall be subject to modification from time to time during the term thereof in accordance with all applicable changes in the Company's rate schedules, rules and regulations and the Commission's general orders, as authorized by law.

2.4 MINIMUM TERM. Normally, all service agreements shall be effective for a minimum initial term of one year from the date steam service commences (unless terminated by mutual agreement of the Customer and the Company). Contract renewal terms will be negotiated by the Customer and the Company upon expiration of the prior contract. The one year minimum service agreement initial term may be temporarily waived for requests involving emergency steam service. The actual term and renewal provisions shall be clearly specified in the Contract for Steam Service.

2.5 UNUSUAL LOADS. When the Customer's load requirements are unusually large or otherwise necessitate a substantial investment by the Company in special or additional equipment or facilities to serve the Customer's requirements, the Company may require the service agreement to be for an initial term as defined in Rule 2.4 hereof, and, upon termination or cancellation, the payment by the Customer of such secured or unsecured charges and amounts (which may be required to be deposited before construction of such equipment or facilities) as may be necessary to protect the investment of the Company.

2.6 TEMPORARY STEAM SERVICE. The Customer shall pay to the Company the Company's estimated cost of connecting and disconnecting its facilities, including its meters installation, to supply temporary or emergency steam service. The Company may require payment of such amount in advance.

2.7 CREDIT REGULATIONS. A cash deposit, indemnity bond, or other credit arrangement to secure the prompt payment of steam service bills may be required by the (cont'd on next page)

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

2.3 MODIFICATIONS. A service agreement shall be subject to modification from time to time during the term thereof in accordance with all applicable changes in the Company's rate schedules, rules and regulations and the Commission's general orders, as authorized by law.

2.4 MINIMUM TERM. Normally, all service agreements shall be effective for a minimum initial term of one year from the date steam service commences (unless terminated by mutual agreement of the Customer and the Company) and after the initial term shall continue from month to month until terminated by the Customer. The one year service agreement initial term may be temporarily waived for requests involving emergency steam service.

2.5 UNUSUAL LOADS. When the Customer's load requirements are unusually large or otherwise necessitate a substantial investment by the Company in special or additional equipment or facilities to serve the Customer's requirements, the Company may require the service agreement to be for an initial term as defined in Rule 2.4 hereof, and, upon termination or cancellation, the payment by the Customer of such secured or unsecured charges and amounts (which may be required to be deposited before construction of such equipment or facilities) as may be necessary to protect the investment of the Company.

TEMPORARY STEAM SERVICE. The Customer shall pay to the Company the 2.6 Company's estimated cost of connecting and disconnecting its facilities, including its meters installation, to supply temporary or emergency steam service. The Company may require payment of such amount in advance.

2.7 CREDIT REGULATIONS. A cash deposit, indemnity bond, or other credit arrangement to secure the prompt payment of steam service bills may be required by the (cont'd on next page)

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Customer may ask Company to test the meter at any time. If the meter is inaccurate by 3% or more, adjustments for billing purposes are appropriate.
- The Customer can ask the Company to verify the accuracy of the meter anytime. If the meter is malfunctioning by less than 3%, the Company may bill the Customer $50.00 for each test requested. If the meter is malfunctioning by 3% or more, no charge applies for the requested verification of the meter's accuracy.

ACCURACY AND TESTS. Except as provided to the contrary in any general 6.6 orders of the Commission applying thereto, the Company's meters shall be tested periodically either by Company personnel duly qualified to perform such tests or by outside qualified contractors, but not less than once annually for Customers with demand meters and once every three years for all other Customers. The Company will arrange for further testing of any meter by a mutually acceptable independent meter tester, at any time upon request by a Customer, provided that the Customer shall pay all costs incurred in (cont'd on next page) performing such special test, if the meter is found to be accurate (i.e., within the meter manufacturer's variance specifications). If any test establishes that a meter is not accurately performing in accordance with such specifications, the company, at its expense, shall cause the required calibration, repair or replacement to restore meter accuracy, and shall make an appropriate readjustment in the affected Customer's billing, measured from the date it is determined in good faith that the inaccuracy began. If such a determination cannot be made, the billing adjustment shall be made for one-half of the period between the date of the last prior successful meter test and the date of the current test disclosing the inaccuracy, provided, however, that, except in cases of meter tampering, such adjustment period shall in no event exceed six months.

6.7 EVIDENCE OF CONSUMPTION. Except as otherwise provided herein with respect to tampering and defective meters, the registration of the Company's meters will be accepted and received at all times and places as prima facie evidence of the amount of steam taken by the customer.

6.8 BILLING ADJUSTMENTS. Any bill which is improper due to the escape of condensate before it is registered by the meter, the metering of noncondensate water or similar malfunctions of the Customer's installation shall be subject to adjustment for the entire period during which the particular malfunction existed, not to exceed sixty (60) months. If the Company shall reasonably determine that a customer has routed any condensate to a sewer line or has otherwise diverted condensate to secure unmetered service, then, in addition to the other actions authorized under this Rule 6.8 and Rules 4.10 and 4.11, the Company may install a steam (cont'd on next page)

7.4 CHANGE OF RATE SCHEDULES. After a Customer has selected an applicable rate schedule under which he elects to take steam service from the Company, the Customer will not have the right to change the selected rate schedule available for that class of steam service until the end of the term of the current contract. However, the Company may permit the Customer to terminate the existing service agreement during such initial term and enter into a new service agreement under a different applicable rate for that class of service if the Customer's steam requirements prove to be different from those originally estimated or if there is a change in the character or condition of the Customer's steam requirements and such change is based upon permanent rather than temporary or seasonal conditions.

ARTICLE 8. BILLING AND PAYMENT

8.1 BILLING. Normally, the Company will read the Customer's meter monthly and bills based on such monthly readings will be rendered at intervals of approximately one month. If bills are rendered more frequently than monthly, the total of such bills for anyone month shall not exceed the amount of a monthly bill calculated under the applicable rate schedule. Customers requesting service initiation beyond the 1st day of any given month shall be charged a prorated amount based on the full monthly charge and the remaining days in the month divided by the total days in the month. This pertains to demand charges, fixed charges, meter charges and applicable taxes, etc.

8.2 PAYMENT OF BILLS. A bill for steam service supplied by the Company shall, upon rendition (by mailing or serving), become due and payable in the net amount thereof.

8.2.1 Any unpaid bill, with the exception of those identified in 8.2.3 below, shall become delinquent on the twenty first (21) day after rendition and the Company may add an administrative late charge equal to five percent (5%) of the first $50.00 and one percent (1%) on
