- B. In boarding houses (except as noted under 5.B) offices of hotels and offices of apartment buildings, quarters occupied by clubs or lodges, public, private, or parochial schools, or colleges, hospitals, libraries, churches, college fraternity houses, and other similar institutions (but excluding dormitory rooms at such schools or colleges).
- C. At residence locations when the customer has no regular business telephone and the use of the service either by himself, members of his household, or his guests, or parties calling him can be considered as more of a business than of a residence nature, which fact might be indicated by advertising, either by business cards, newspapers, hand bills, billboards, circulars, motion picture screens, or other advertising matter, such as on vehicles, etc., or when such business use is not such as commonly arises and passes over to residence telephones during the intervals when, in compliance with the law or established custom, business places are ordinarily closed.
- D. Where the place of business and residence of a customer are in the same premises and no telephone is installed in the place of business, the business rate shall be charged for the telephone installed in the residence.
- E. At residence locations, when an extension station or extension bell is located in a shop, office, or other place of business.
- F. At any location where the listing of service at that location indicates a business, trade or profession, except as specified below.

7. Establishment of Credit – Residence Service

A. In order to insure the payment of all charges due for its service, the Company may require any customer to establish and maintain his credit. If he cannot show evidence of a satisfactory payment record for prior telephone service, the following criteria will be applied:

1. Home ownership, excluding mobile homes.
2. Existence of a checking account, regardless of age.
3. Existence of a savings account, regardless of age.
4. Motor vehicle ownership.
5. Full time employment more than two years with current employer.
6. Applicant being 50 years of age.
7. Possession of a recent charge card.
8. Possession of a major national charge card.
9. Possession of a major oil company credit card.
10. An existing loan from a financial institution not considered delinquent by the creditor.

A positive response to any two of the above criteria makes a deposit unnecessary.

8. Right of Refusal

A. The Company reserves the right to refuse service to any applicant that is indebted to the Company for service previously furnished until arrangements for the payment of the indebtedness satisfactory to the Company have been established. The Company may also refuse to furnish service to any applicant when it appears to the Company the applicant desires to, or may, establish, furnish, or provide service to a former customer of the Company indebted to the Company for previous service, until arrangements for the payment of the indebtedness satisfactory to the Company have been established.

8. Deposits or Guarantee (Continued)

B. Deposit not to affect regular collection practices.

The fact that a deposit has been made shall in no way relieve the applicant or customer from complying with the Company's regulations as to advance payments and the prompt payment of bills on presentation, nor constitute a waiver or modification of the regular practices of the Company providing for the discontinuance of service for non-payment of any sums due the Company for services rendered. The Company may discontinue service to any customer failing to pay current bills without regard to the fact that such customer has made a deposit with the Company to secure payment of such bills or has furnished the Company with a guarantee in writing of such bills.

C. Interest to be paid on deposits.

NOV 19 1997

- C. An applicant for service, or a present customer, may satisfy a deposit requirement by providing a Contract of Guaranty in an amount not less than the requested deposit from a present customer acceptable to the Telephone Company. The guaranty contract shall be on a form provided by the Telephone Company which shall include the Company's right to transfer charges to the limit of the guaranty, from a defaulted bill of the customer, from whom a deposit or a Contract of Guaranty was required, to the guarantor's account or accounts and the further right to suspend the guarantor's service.
- D. The fact that a deposit has been made, or a guaranty provided, shall in no way relieve the customer from complying with the Telephone Company's regulations as to the prompt payment of bills, nor constitute a waiver or modification of the regular practices of the Telephone Company providing for the temporary suspension of service or the termination of the service contract for non-payment of bills.
- E. Service may be discontinued for failure to furnish a suitable deposit, when conditions appear to require the Telephone Company to have such credit protection, after the Telephone Company has furnished five days' written notice to the customer requiring the customer to furnish such deposit. If, in the judgment of the Telephone Company, unusual risk of financial loss exists, service may be suspended after forty-eight hours written notice has been furnished to the customer.
- F. Any balance of the amount deposited and credited to the customer's account is returned to the customer at the termination of the contract, or it may be returned at any time previous thereto at the option of the Telephone Company when it is deemed that the customer has established satisfactory credit.
- G. A service deposit will not be required for Lifeline service, if the qualifying low-income customer voluntarily elects toll blocking, where available. If toll blocking is unavailable a service deposit may be charged.

Interest at the rate of not less than 6% per annum shall be paid by the Company on all deposits made for the purpose of establishing credit. Simple interest shall be computed from the date of payment of the deposit and shall be paid annually or at the time of discontinuance of service or withdrawal of the deposit.

Upon satisfactory payment of all undisputed charges during the last twelve (12) billing periods, the deposit shall with accrued interest be promptly credited against charges stated on subsequent bills. Payment of a charge is satisfactory if received prior to the date upon which the charge becomes delinquent provided it is not in dispute. The Company may withhold refund of a deposit pending the resolution of a dispute with respect to charges secured by the deposit.

+D. Subject to the requirements of this section, service may be discontinued during normal business hours on or after the date specified in the notice of discontinuance. Basic local telecommunications service shall not be discontinued on a day when the offices of the Company are not available to facilitate reconnection of basic local telecommunications service or on a day immediately preceding such day.

+E. Telecommunications service shall not be discontinued under Section (2)(A) unless written notice by first-class mail is served on the customer at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the proposed discontinuance. Service of notice by mail is complete upon mailing. As an alternative, the Company may deliver a written notice by hand to the customer at least ninety-six (96) hours prior to discontinuance.

+F. A notice of discontinuance shall contain the following information:

- +1. The name, address and telephone number of the customer;
- +2. A statement of the reason for the proposed discontinuance and the cost for reconnection;
- +3. The date after which service will be discontinued unless appropriate action is taken;
- +4. How a customer may avoid the discontinuance;
- +5. The customer's right to enter into a settlement agreement if the claim is for a charge not in dispute and the customer is unable to pay the charge in full at one time;
- +6. The telephone number where the customer may make an inquiry;
- +7. A statement that this notice will not be effective if the charges involved are part of an unresolved dispute; and

GENERAL REGULATIONS

- +2. When a customer advises The Company that all or part of a charge is in dispute, The Company shall record the date, time and place the inquiry is made; investigate the inquiry promptly and thoroughly; and attempt to resolve the dispute in a manner satisfactory to both parties.
- +3. Failure of a customer to cooperate with The Company in efforts to resolve an inquiry which has the effect of placing charges in dispute shall constitute a waiver of the customer's rights to continuance of service under this chapter.
- +4. If a customer disputes a charge, the customer shall pay an amount to The Company equal to that part of the total bill not in dispute. The amount not in dispute shall be mutually determined by the parties. The parties shall consider the customer's prior usage, the nature of the dispute and any other pertinent factors in determining the amount not in dispute. The Company shall not discontinue service to a customer for nonpayment of charges in dispute while that dispute is pending.
- +5. If the parties are unable to mutually determine the amount not in dispute, the customer shall pay to The Company, at The Company's option, an amount not to exceed fifty percent (50%) of the charge in dispute or an amount based on usage during a like period under similar conditions which shall represent the amount not in dispute. The Company shall not discontinue service to a customer for nonpayment of charges in dispute while that dispute is pending.

- +6. Failure of the customer to pay to The Company the amount not in dispute within four (4) working days from the date that the dispute is registered or by the delinquent date of the disputed bill, whichever is later, shall constitute a waiver of the customer's right to continuance of service and The Company may then proceed to discontinue service.
- +7. If the dispute is ultimately resolved in the favor of the customer in whole or in part, any excess moneys paid by the customer shall be refunded promptly.
- +8. If The Company does not resolve the dispute to the satisfaction of the customer, The Company representative shall notify the customer that each party has a right to make an informal complaint to the commission, and of the address and telephone number where the customer may file an informal complaint with the commission. If a customer files an informal complaint with the commission prior to advising The Company that all or a portion of a bill is in dispute, the commission shall notify the customer of the payment required by section (2)(12.G.5 and 12.G.6)
- +9. After resolution of the customer complaint, The Company may treat a customer complaint or dispute involving the same question or issue upon the same facts as already determined and is not required to comply more than once prior to discontinuance of service.

However, such an arrangement is permitted only on the premises of individuals or firms associated with each other.
- C. The lines are bridged together so as to operate as one line.
 - a. All bells will ring at the same time.
- D. The rate for each main station is the established individual line rate. The business or residence rate is applied in accordance with the character of use at each premise.

29. Connection of Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices

- 1. Automatic dialing-announcing devices used for solicitation may not be connected to the telephone network.
- 2. An automatic dialing-announcing device is any automatic equipment used for solicitation which incorporates the following features:
 - (a)
 - 1. Storage capability of numbers to be called.
 - 2. A random or sequential number generator that produces numbers to be called.
 - (b) Has the capability, working alone or in conjunction with other equipment, of disseminating a prerecorded message to the number called.

DEFINITIONS

ACCESS LINE - A circuit including protection apparatus, drop wiring and lines (circuit) necessary to connect an individual line, party line, private branch exchange switchboard, key system or an intercommunication system customer with a central office. An access line will be terminated in a standard jack, key system or private branch exchange.

ADDITIONAL LISTING - Any listing of a name or information in connection with a customer's telephone number beyond that to which he is entitled without additional charge in connection with his regular service.

AUTHORIZED USER - A person, firm or corporation (other than the customer) on whose premise a telephone, Private Branch Exchange, or private line service or channel is located and who may communicate over such channels in accordance with the terms of the tariff.

BASE RATE - A rate for urban grades of exchange service available to customers located within a base rate area.

BASE RATE AREA - A specific area within which local telephone exchange service, other than rural line service, is furnished at rates quoted on the Local Exchange Service Tariffs without extra Mileage Charges.

Section 3
Original Sheet 15

DEFINITIONS (Continued)

PRIVATE BRANCH EXCHANGE SYSTEM - An arrangement of equipment, contracted for by a customer, consisting of switching apparatus with attendants' telephone, trunks to a central office and stations connected with the switching apparatus, thereby providing for telephonic intercommunication between these stations, and also communication with the general exchange system, and the toll plant in connection with toll calls. Throughout this Tariff, the commonly used abbreviation "P,B.X." will be substituted for the words Private Branch Exchange.

- A. P.B.X. Trunks: A circuit connecting a P.B.X. system with a central office.
- B. P.B.X. Stations: Any station (including the operating set or sets) connected directly or indirectly with a P.B.X. system.
- C. Switchboards: Switchboards are classified as follows:
1. Cord Switchboard: A switchboard on which all lines terminate in jacks, interconnection of stations and of stations and trunk lines is established manually by means of cords equipped with plugs.
 - a. Multiple Cord Switchboard: A cord switchboard arranged so that each line may have two or more appearances or jack terminations.
 - b. Non-multiple Cord Switchboard: A cord switchboard arranged so that each line has only one appearance or jack termination.
 2. Cordless Switchboard (Key Switchboard): A switchboard on which all lines terminate on keys which may be used to establish interconnection of stations, and of stations and trunk lines.
 3. Dial Switchboard: A switchboard on which interconnection of stations, and of stations and trunk lines is established by means of dialing.
- D. Battery Power: Power furnished for talking and for operating lamp or visual signals and relays.
