The customer shall, in cooperation with the Telephone Company, coordinate in planning the actions to be taken to maintain maximum network capability following natural or man-made disasters which affect telecommunications services.

2.3.14 Jurisdictional Report Requirements

(A) Percent Interstate Usage (PIU)

- (1) Pursuant to Federal Communications Commission order F.C.C. 85-145 adopted April 16, 1985, interstate usage is to be developed as though every call that enters a customer network from a calling location within the same state as that in which the called station (as designated by the called station number) is situated is an intrastate communication and every call for which the point of entry is in a state other than that where the called station (as designated by the called station number) is situated is an interstate communication. The manner in which a call is routed through the telecommunications network does not affect the jurisdiction of the call, i.e., a call between two points within the same state is an intrastate communication even if the call is routed through another state.
- (2) The projected interstate percentages will be used by the Telephone Company to apportion the usage between interstate and intrastate until a revised report is received as set forth in (B)(7) following.

(B) Jurisdictional Reports

When the Telephone Company receives sufficient call detail to permit it to determine the jurisdiction of originating and terminating access minutes of use, the Telephone Company will bill using a PIU factor developed from these actual minutes of use and will not use the customer provided PIU factors provided as set forth in (1) through (8) following.

The Telephone Company developed PIU for access minutes of use will be determined at a statewide level. When the access minutes are measured, the interstate percentage will be developed on a quarterly basis by dividing the measured interstate originating or terminating access minutes (the access minutes where the calling number is in one state and the called number is in another state) by the total measured originating or terminating access minutes.

(A) Percent Interstate Usage (PIU)

(C)

(1) Pursuant to Federal Communications Commission order F.C.C. 85-145 adopted April 16, 1985, interstate usage is to be developed as though every call that enters a customer network at a point within the same state as that in which the called station (as designated by the called station number) is situated is an intrastate communication and every call for which the point of entry is in a state other than that where the called station (as designated by the called station number) is situated is an interstate communication.

(M) (N)

(2) The projected interstate percentages will be used by the Telephone Company to apportion the usage between interstate and intrastate until a revised report is received as set forth in (B)(7) following.

(M)

(B) Jurisdictional Reports

When the Telephone Company receives sufficient call detail to permit it to determine the jurisdiction of originating and terminating access minutes of use, the Telephone Company will bill using a PIU factor developed from these actual minutes of use and will not use the customer provided PIU factors provided as set forth in (1) through (8) following.

The Telephone Company developed PIU for access minutes of use will be determined at a statewide level. When the access minutes are measured, the interstate percentage will be developed on a quarterly basis by dividing the measured interstate originating or terminating access minutes (the access minutes where the calling number is in one state and the called number is in another state) by the total measured originating or terminating access minutes.

2.3.14 Jurisdictional Report Requirements (Cont'd)

(B) Jurisdictional Reports (Cont'd)

The Telephone Company will begin to utilize the Telephone Company developed PIU factors as soon as sufficient call detail is available and will implement subsequent Telephone Company developed PIU factors on a quarterly basis in accordance with the provisions set forth in (7) following.

When the Telephone Company receives insufficient call detail to identify the calling station to determine the jurisdiction, the Telephone Company will charge the applicable rates for terminating switched access as set forth in this Tariff. It is not possible for customers using multifrequency address signaling to transmit calling party number (CPN) to interconnecting carriers. In addition, there may be a percentage of usage where it is not possible for customers using CCS7 to know and therefore to send to the Telephone Company, the needed originating information. Accordingly, the Telephone Company will charge the intrastate terminating switched access rates to customers using CCS7 only for those minutes lacking originating information that are in excess of the average percentage of minutes for which CPN is not transmitted, initially 24% (the floor). For example, if 40% of a customer's minutes sent to the Telephone Company do not contain sufficient originating information to allow the Telephone Company to determine the originating location, then the Telephone Company would apply these provisions to those minutes exceeding the "floor", or 16% in this example. The Telephone Company will apply the customer's provided PIU to the residual traffic that does not apply to the provision of this tariff section (84% in this example).

Minor fluctuations in the "floor" are expected. As a result, the Telephone Company will not apply charges based on the floor when the customer's percentage of calls lacking sufficient originating information is within 2 percentage points of the floor.

The Telephone Company will recalculate the overall switched access customer average "floor" quarterly.

In the event that the Telephone Company applies the intrastate terminating access rates to calls without sufficient originating information as specified herein, customers will have the opportunity to request backup documentation of the Telephone Company's basis for such application. The customer can request that the Telephone Company change the application of the intrastate access rates upon acceptable showing of why the intrastate rate should not be applied.
