JOINT MOTION TO SUSPEND PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

COME NOW Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission, Roman Dzhurinskiy and Zinaida Dzhurinskaya (“Complainants”), Ameren Missouri, and the Office of the Public Counsel (“Movants”), by and through the undersigned counsel, and file this Joint Motion to Suspend Procedural Schedule and in support thereof state that Movants are engaged in settlement discussions to resolve the small formal complaint and the issues regarding the application of an exemption to Ameren Missouri’s Energy Efficiency Investment Charge to residential customers receiving assistance from enumerated assistance programs in MO P.S.C. Schedule No. 6, 1st Revised Sheet No. 90.1, applied to a different utility. A settlement would obviate the need for the evidentiary hearing set for January 26, 2016. Further, Movants are engaged in concluding a stipulation and agreement to settle this matter and anticipate filing a stipulation and agreement or a status report no later than December 21, 2015.

WHEREFORE, the Staff, Complainants, Ameren Missouri, and Office of Public Counsel respectfully request the Commission suspend the procedural schedule in this case to allow Movants sufficient time to conclude a settlement of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Hampton Williams
