ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Issue Date: July 12, 2010

Effective Date: July 12, 2010

On March 5, 2010¹, Avalon Homeowners Association (“Avalon”), filed a formal complaint pursuant to rule 4 CSR 240-2.070 against Union Electric Company, d/b/a AmerenUE (“AmerenUE”). The complaint is signed by Kerry Tebbe, Trustee.

On March 8, the Commission issued a notice of deficiency for Avalon’s failure to have appropriate legal representation. As of today’s date, 90 days has elapsed from the day Avalon filed its complaint, and Avalon has taken no action to correct the deficiency or any other action to further prosecute its complaint.

Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.116(2) provides that: “[c]ases may be dismissed for lack of prosecution if no action has occurred in the case for ninety (90) days and no party has filed a pleading requesting a continuance beyond that time.” Avalon will be directed to show cause why its complaint should not be dismissed. If Avalon does not file a timely response by counsel, the Commission may dismiss its complaint.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. No later than July 22, 2010, Avalon Homeowners Association shall show cause why the Commission should not dismiss its complaint.
2. This order shall become effective immediately upon issuance.
