RESPONDENT	•

APPELLANT'S APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERUS

COMES NOW Appellant, and prays this Honorable Court HOLD his deposit check of $70 and return it to him after granting his Application to proceed in Forma Pauperus, and in support of his application, states as follows:

- 1) Appellant is a poor person, who although a lawyer licensed at bar, is disabled, is not able to earn an income, and has been allowed to proceed In Forma Pauperus in an appeal from the PSC before this Western District in cause WD73913 and by Cole County in Circuit Court in that case before appeal in cause 11AC-CC00005 pursuant to Rule 77.03
- 2) Appellant's circumstances are unchanged and he prays he be permitted to commence and prosecute this appeal without making a cost deposit or furnishing security for costs.
- 3) The facts of this appeal involve appellant's inability to maintain a cold weather rule payment agreement such that if funds are removed from the household to pay a court deposit they will be unavailable to pay the utility cold weather payment.

WHEREFORE, appellant prays he be allowed to proceed In Forma Pauperus.
