RE: File No. KA-2013-0489

Dear Sir:

BCI Allegiance, LLC ("BCI") filed an application for Video Service Authorization for the community of Rushville, Missouri on May 2, 2013. On May 3, 2013 the Commission instructed BCI to correct a deficiency regarding the certification of delivery to the political subdivision of Rushville, and the Staff was ordered to file a recommendation no later than May 15, 2013 as to whether "Not Applicable" is a sufficient designation of a 0% franchise fee in the political subdivision of Rushville. BCI filed the updated Application to correct the deficiency on May 3, 2013.

On May 20, 2013, BCI contacted PSC attorney assigned to the file, Ms. Cully Dale regarding the status of the Staff Recommendation. Ms. Dale advised that the page of the Application setting forth the fee should be adjusted to reflect 0% and filed via EFIS with a cover letter indicating the nature of the change. Please refer to the following page reflecting correction.

Please advise if the Commission requires anything over and above this letter to process the BCI Video Service Authorization for Rushville. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

Shannon Dunham, Esq.
