File No. EC-2015-0204

ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Issue Date: June 2, 2015

Effective Date: June 12, 2015

Samantha Blackmon (Complainant) filed a complaint against Kansas City Power & Light Company. The Commission issued an order setting a prehearing conference for May 22, 2015. Complainant failed to appear. During the prehearing conference, the Commission was made aware that Complainant has not paid a bill since the beginning of this complaint. In light of such, KCP&L may proceed with actions consistent with Commission rule 4 CSR 240-13.045, concerning disputes and discontinuance of service.

Commission rule 4 CSR 240-2.116 (3) states that a party may be dismissed from a case for failure to appear at a prehearing conference. Because Complainant failed to appear, the Commission will dismiss Complainant from this case and accordingly dismiss this complaint.

Because this matter is not being dismissed on the merits, but rather on procedural grounds, Complainant may refile the complaint. If Complainant chooses to refile the complaint, it will be assigned a difference case number and the process will start over.

This order will become final unless an application for rehearing is filed prior to the effective date set out below. Information regarding the rehearing and appeal process can be found at 4 CSR 240-2.160 and Chapter 386 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. This complaint is dismissed.
2. This order shall become effective on June 12, 2015.
3. This file shall be closed on June 13, 2015.
