NOTICE OF RECUSAL

Issue Date: May 13, 2014

The regulatory law judge ("RLJ") is recusing himself to avoid any appearance of impropriety. Impropriety is the subject of a letter from Craig Mershon to the RLJ received on May 9, 2014. That letter seeks no relief from the Commission, and addresses no substantive matter, but charges the RLJ with bias and violations of law. In support, Mr. Mershon cites rulings against him. Adverse rulings do not show bias. Nevertheless, to avoid any appearance of impropriety, the RLJ will recuse himself from this action.
