Re: Sterling Moody, et al. v. AmerenUE, et al.
MPSC Case No. EC-2002-112

Dear Judge Roberts:

At the conclusion of the hearing on Tuesday, the parties were given until Friday, July 19, to submit memoranda with respect to respondents' offer of designations from two depositions of complainant Sterling Moody. I have since been informed by Freeman Bosley, counsel for complainants, that he does not oppose the admission of these deposition designations into evidence. I have also been informed by the Staff Counsel and the Office of Public Counsel that they do not object to the admission of the deposition designations.

As a result, I request that Exhibits 29 and 30 be admitted into evidence at this time. If anything further is required in this regard, please let me know.

Yours very truly,

HERZOG, CREBS & MCGHEE, LLP
