REQUEST TO SET TEST YEAR AND TRUE-UP

COME NOW Complainants, and for their request to set the proper test year and true-up period state as follows:

1. In Complainant’s Excess Earnings Complaint and Request for Expedited Review and Relief, Complainants relied on Ameren Missouri’s quarterly “Surveillance Monitoring Report” for the twelve months ending September 30, 2013, as a basis for their claim.¹ The contents of this report support the conclusion that Ameren has been overearning for the twelve month period ending September 30, 2013 and will continue to overearn.²

2. Consistent with their Complaint, Complainants propose and recommend setting a test year consisting of the twelve months ended September 30, 2013.

3. Further, Complainants request that the Commission order a true-up for known and measurable changes, for the period ending March 31, 2014.

² Id. at page 6, ¶ 17.

WHEREFORE, Complainants respectfully request that the Commission set the test year and any required true-up as noted herein.

Respectfully submitted,

BRYAN CAVE LLP
