

Anticipated Timeline for Chapter 31 rulemaking:

August 29th: Workshop

Sept. 14th: Deadline for informal comments about draft rule and fiscal impact calculations, if any.

Sept. 17th: Staff reviews informal comments. Further revises draft rule and develops fiscal note.

September 26 and/or October 3: Agenda meeting. If MoPSC decides to proceed the MoPSC will also establish a new case with a TX number.

After Agenda meeting: Proposed rulemaking is reviewed by Dept. of Economic Development. Proposed rule comes back to MoPSC and then gets forwarded to Missouri Secretary of State.

Mid-November or December: Proposed rule is published in Missouri Register. Deadline established for formal written comments. Hearing date established.

30 days after publication: Deadline for filing written comments about proposed rule/fiscal note. Hearing held by MoPSC.

60 days after hearing: MoPSC makes decision about revising/approving/rejecting proposed rulemaking, and Order of Rulemaking is issued. Filed in case file and sent to Missouri Secretary of State.

March or April: Order of Rulemaking published in Missouri Register.

30 days after publication in Mo Register: Rulemaking becomes effective.

July 2014: Section 536.200.2 RSMo requirement to evaluate accuracy of project fiscal impact of any rule one full fiscal year after it becomes effective.
