ORDER DIRECTING FILING

Issue Date: August 25, 2022

Effective Date: August 25, 2022

On August 24, 2022, Evergy Missouri West, Inc. d/b/a Evergy Missouri West, filed a request for a waiver¹ from a portion of its tariff--Rules and Regulations, Chapter 8, Electric Power and Energy Curtailment Plan, Sheet No. R-55 through Sheet No. R-58. This tariff provision requires certain actions be taken when Evergy Missouri West's coal supply reaches specified levels. Evergy Missouri West states that the waiver is needed to address events that may be required to occur until the Commission takes action on tariff modifications proposed in Evergy Missouri West's pending general rate case, File No. ER-2022-0130. Evergy Missouri West also requested expedited treatment so that the Commission's decision was effective no later than September 9, 2022.

Evergy Missouri West states in its motion at paragraph 13:

Rules and Regulations, Tariff sheet No. R-55 through tariff sheet R-58, provides for a waiver of any specified portion of the Company's tariffs by application to the Commission for good cause shown.

The Commission does not find a waiver provision in that location of Evergy Missouri West's currently effective tariff. The Commission will direct Evergy Missouri West to supplement its motion by providing the citation to the Commission's authority to grant the waiver as requested.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. No later than August 26, 2022, Evergy Missouri West shall supplement its motion to provide a citation to the authority for the Commission to take the action requested.
2. This order is effective when issued.
