AFFIDAVIT OF JAMES BUSCH

COMES NOW James Busch, Affiant, and first being duly sworn, states as follows:

1. My name is James Busch and my business address is Missouri Public Service Commission, 200 Madison Street, Jefferson City, Missouri, 65101.

2. I am the duly appointed and authorized Manager of the Water and Sewer Section of the Regulatory Review Division of the Missouri Public Service Commission.

3. I have reviewed the pertinent records of the Commission and I have determined that, between January 2005 and today, Consolidated Public Water Supply District C-1 of Jefferson County, Missouri, and the City of Pevely have not sought and have not obtained the approval of the Commission of a Territorial Agreement between them designating the boundaries of the water service area of each and the powers granted by each to the other to provide service within one another's boundaries.

4. I have reviewed the pertinent records of the Commission and I have determined that, between January 2005 and today, Consolidated Public Water Supply District C-1 of Jefferson County, Missouri, and the City of Pevely have not sought and have not obtained the approval of the Commission of a modification or amendment of any Territorial Agreement between them.

5. I have reviewed the pertinent records of the Commission and I have determined that, between January 2005 and today, Consolidated Public Water Supply District C-1 of Jefferson County, Missouri, and the City of Pevely have not sought and have not obtained the adjudication by the Commission of any complaint concerning a Territorial Agreement between them.

6. I have reviewed the pertinent records of the Commission and I have determined that, between January 2005 and today, Consolidated Public Water Supply District C-1 of Jefferson County, Missouri, and the City of Pevely have not sought and have not obtained the determination of the Commission that any Territorial Agreement between them should be suspended or revoked as no longer in the public interest.

FURTHER the Affiant sayeth not.
