Request for Additional Time

COME NOW the Missouri Department of Natural Resources (MDNR) and Union Electric Company, d/b/a AmerenUE (AmerenUE) and for their request for additional time, state:

1. The sole remaining issues related to AmerenUE's request for waivers from the IRP rules are ones raised by MDNR. AmerenUE and MDNR are attempting to work out some or all of the issues; however, these discussions cannot be completed before the 10-day period provided by Commission rule 4 CSR 240-2.080(15) for AmerenUE to respond to MDNR's latest pleading would expire.

2. In the interest of resolving as many issues regarding the IRP waivers as possible, AmerenUE and MDNR request the Commission permit additional time for negotiations and discussions.

3. AmerenUE and MDNR intend to file a Joint Statement providing their proposed resolution of some or all waiver issues, and AmerenUE may file a separate pleading addressing any unresolved issues. Those filings will be made no later than May 10, 2010.

WHEREFORE, the Missouri Department of Natural Resources and AmerenUE request additional time to May 10, 2010 to file additional pleadings in this case.
