2 . On August 5, in its Order Regarding Customer Notice the Commission ordered the cooperative and the city to:

- b) File a draft notice by August 21st that, among other things, contained information on how those affected by the Joint Application may participate and be heard in the action.

This filing complies with both requirements of Commission's August 5th Order.

3 . A list of the current cooperative members and accompanying property owners for the structures affected by the Joint Application was provided to Staff via email, on July 24, a copy of which is attached hereto as Attachment 1.

4 . Attached hereto as Attachment 2 is a draft notice that Staff, the cooperative and the city suggest be provided to the all current members and property owners of record.

5 . Acting Public Counsel has reviewed the draft notice and has stated that he does not object to it. The parties recommend that the deadline to intervene for those members or property owners subject to the Joint Application be thirty days (30) from the date of the notice.
