NOTICE

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission (Staff) and provides the following Notice to the parties and the Commission:

1. On May 4, 2012, the parties filed surrebuttal testimony in the above stated case.

2. Pursuant to the Commission's February 29, 2012 Order establishing a procedural schedule, the parties are to distribute workpapers prepared in the course of developing a witness' testimony to each party within two business days after the particular testimony is filed.

3. Due to Staff's primary witness John A. Rogers being unavailable at this time due to a death in his family, the undersigned could not ascertain whether workpapers exist for his testimony. This message was conveyed to the parties by email on May 7, 2012.

4. Staff hereby notifies the Commission and the parties that the Staff expects to provide any workpapers related to Mr. Rogers' surrebuttal testimony shortly after he returns to work, perhaps as early as late next week.

5. Further, Union Electric Company d/b/a Ameren Missouri's (Ameren Missouri) deposition of Mr. Rogers noticed on May 1, 2012, for Friday, May 11, 2012, at 1:00 p.m., will not take place at that time and date. Staff so notified Ameren Missouri by telephone message on Monday, May 7, 2012, and later all the parties by e-mail that same day. Staff will notify Ameren Missouri of Mr. Rogers' availability to be deposed when it knows the same.

6. The deposition notice also requested Mr. Rogers to produce certain documents at the deposition. Staff will produce documents at the rescheduled deposition.

WHEREFORE, the Staff provides this Notice to the Commission and the parties.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jennifer Hernandez
