RESPONSE TO ORDER DIRECTING FILING

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission, by and through counsel, and hereby files its Response to the Commission's September 17, 2015 Order Directing Filing ("Order") and states as follows:

- The Commission's Order directed "No later than September 22, 2015, the parties shall file a pleading or pleadings stating whether they believe they can negotiate a MEEIA plan that would include retrospective Evaluation, Measurement, and Verification ("EM&V"), and that would also include a Performance Incentive that has a component of supply-side investment reduction."
- 2. On September 22, 2015, the parties discussed possible resolutions to the specific issues raised by the Commission. The parties intend to meet again on September 23, 2015 to continue discussions of possible solutions and whether or not a MEEIA plan can be negotiated that reasonably addresses the issues raised by the Commission's Order.

WHEREFORE, the Staff prays the Commission accept its Response to its September 17th Order.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Robert S. Berlin
