

SECTION 2: REGULATIONS2.5 Customer Deposits and Advance Payments2.5.1 Advance Payments

To safeguard its interests and due to Customer's unknown or poor credit, the Company may require a Customer to make an advance payment before services and facilities are furnished. The advance payment will not exceed an amount up to two months of estimated monthly usage charges. In addition, where special construction is involved, the advance payment may also include an amount equal to the estimated non-recurring charges for the special construction and recurring charges (if any) for a period to be set between the Company and the Customer. The advance payment will be credited to the Customer's initial bill and any subsequent bills until the advance payment is exhausted. An advance payment may be required in addition to a deposit.

2.5.2 Deposits

- (A) To safeguard its interests, the Company may require the Customer to make a deposit to be held as a guarantee for the payment of charges. A deposit does not relieve the Customer of the responsibility for the prompt payment of bills on presentation. The deposit will not exceed an amount equal to:
- (1) three month's charges for a service or facility which has a minimum payment period of one month; or
  - (2) the charges that would apply for the minimum payment period for a service or facility which has a minimum payment period of more than one month; except that the deposit may include an additional amount in the event that a termination charge is applicable.
- (B) A deposit may be required in addition to an advance payment.

- (D) Deposits held will accrue interest at a rate of one percent (1%) above the prime lending rate as published in the Wall Street Journal, adjusted annually on December 1 using the prime lending rate as published in the Wall Street Journal on the last business day of September of each year.
