

Adams Management Biographies

James W. Broemmer, Jr. Chief Executive Officer

Jim Broemmer, Jr. is CEO of Adams TelSystems, Inc. Adams is a full service telecommunications company offering local exchange services in Illinois, cable TV, Internet, and more. Broemmer joined Adams in March of 1993.

Before becoming CEO in 2003 Broemmer held the positions of Assistant Manager, Office Manager and Comptroller. Broemmer currently serves on the boards of several local and state organizations.

Robert L. Hutter Chief Financial Officer

Robert L. Hutter is CFO of Adams TelSystems, Inc. Adams is a full service telecommunications company offering local exchange services in Illinois, cable TV, Internet, and more. Hutter joined Adams in March of 2006 as Controller and was named CFO of the organization in 2013.

Prior to joining Adams, Hutter spent 20 years in the petroleum distribution business. His business had operations in Illinois, Missouri, and Iowa prior to the operations being sold.

Michael J. Ridder Director of Business Development

Mike Ridder is Director of Business Development at Adams TelSystems, Inc. Mike oversees the CLEC operations. Mike joined Adams in June of 2002. Before becoming Director of Business Development he held the position of Director of Internet Operations. Mike is very involved in the community and recently completed an 8 year term as a Quincy Park Board Commissioner.

Timothy W. Hightower Technical Services Manager

Tim Hightower joined Adams in 1989 as Central Office Supervisor and currently serves as Technical Services Manager. He works on long term planning for both Adams' operations, and also supports product development and implementation within the company.

In addition to his current responsibilities, Tim serves as Project Manager for Adams 4G LTE Fixed Wireless product.