Re: Pertaining "ORDER GRANTING CERTIFICATION" Case No. TA-93-356, annual Tax Declaration

Dear Executive Secretary

Pursuant to issue of order thereby "The Commission" as referred to herein the above mentioned, "that Edmond K. Jones d/b/a Vagabond Publishing Company is hereby granted a certificate of service authority to provide private pay telephone service in the state of Missouri via customer owned coin operated telephone equipment", as argo insofar "The Commission's" standard operating procedure I began receiving according to schedule, State of Missouri Public Service Commission documents for declaring annual income from telephone services provided in this same state, and other regular correspondence conforming law, and the resulting ancillary correspondence from the same industry's service, systems', and associations providers whereby I may be assisted with enhanced ability initiating, and operating my business in this respect, however though having complete legal authority to operate my business from my home hereat 4020 Shreve Ave., St. Louis, Mo. 63115-2155, as so ordered by "The Commission" as conforming with law under (Sec. 417.200-417.230 RSMo.), since I've confronted continued emcumbrance to initiate the marketing thereof the business operations as so ordered the legal authority thereof as referenced herein, resulting from the requisite fraudulent intent thereby the relatives I've brought proceedings for damages against to include mail tampering, and therefore I've not been able to conduct business operations as referred to herein the above mentioned.

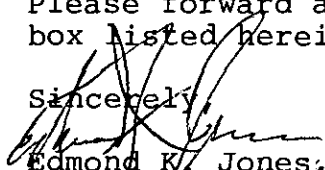

Furthermore, whereas I'm delinquent respecting the required annual income declarations, of which I can't remember the last year I submitted the same by reason as referred to herein the above mentioned, now that I've successfully seen to the termination of the two primary conspirators, and beset against the remainder opposition to my planning to conduct profitable operations as referred to herein the above mentioned, I've recontinued as intended upon petitioning for certificate of service authority from "The Commission", and therefore I'm requesting an audit and the corresponding documents whereby I may begin business operations as provided by "The Commission".

I appreciate any assistance you may provide me with as I put forth efforts to resolve the emcumbrance to conducting successful operations doing business as provided thereby "The Commission" as referred to here- in the above mentioned.

I look forward with great pleasure to hearing from you soon, with your response.

Please forward all future correspondence onto the interim post office box listed herein the above heading address.

Sincerely,

Edmond K. Jones, CEO
Vagabond Publishing Company
