DEKALB COUNTY POST HEARING BRIEF

COMES NOW Intervenor DeKalb County, Missouri (hereafter “County”) by and through their counsel Ivan L. Schraeder, and in compliance with the Commission’s Order Adopting Procedural Schedule hereby files its Post-Hearing Brief, by stating as follows:

The County and Ameren Missouri reached a settlement of the issues pending before the Commission in this matter as to matters in DeKalb County, Missouri. As a part of that settlement, the County agreed to withdraw its opposition to this Petition in this matter, but not as to any future matters that may come before the Commission as to future wind power matters. The County desires to make it known that the County has not abandoned any of its legal positions and arguments as to future wind power matters that may arise in DeKalb County, Missouri even though it has withdrawn its opposition in this matter.

It is with expectation that the Commission will incorporate the settlement between the County and Ameren Missouri that withdrawal has facilitated. However, if the settlement is not incorporated in the final Commission order, the Commission needs to know that the County will continue to pursue all avenues of relief available to it.

The executed settlement has been filed with the Commission as a part of the formal record in this matter.

WHEREFORE, the County respectfully requests that the Commission acknowledge the settlement and incorporate it into the final order issued in this matter.

Respectfully submitted by:

/s/ Ivan L. Schraeder
